Stan, Kyle, Kenny and Cartman are screechin' to a Nintendo 64 near
you. Sweet!

▼ You will respect my authoritah! Deputy Cartman's on his bike, hoping to take the flag in South Park Rally.

Kick ass racer

The lovable foursome are back, and this time they're burning up the streets of South Park.

SP Rally is packed with loadsa cool courses, blindin' power ups and awesome action. Take to the streets in a single player game or grab your mates and try the multiplayer match ups.

▲ Move over Anakin and Sebulba... Kyle and his racing pals are comin' through!

▲ Even Mr Hat's in on the action, taking pole position with his loopy mate, Mr Garrison.

South Park Rally

No ordinary racer

If you think this is just another Mario Kart 64 or Diddy Kong Racing copy, think again.

Yes, there are a lot of similar features, but South Park Rally takes racing games to a whole new level.

The main difference is that some of the challenges allow you to drive off the basic route and take alternative paths to the finish line. Oh, and there'll also be an ample supply of shortcuts as you weave through the crazy town of South Park.

► Speeding's bad, okay? Mr Mackey takes it easy on the corner.

▲ The crazy short cuts can have you driving down dangerous routes. Watch out for trains here.

◀ You can drive off the road if you like, and scramble down the snowy hills to the finish line. Mackey wins!

The very weak plot

Rarely does a Nintendo racing game have a storyline, but anything's possible when it involves South Park.

The town's mayor is incredibly stressed out and she needs to get away for a while. The biggest problem is that she can't leave without finding a temporary replacement. That's where the South Park Rally comes in.

The winner of the tournament can look after the town in her absence. Well, we told you the plot was incredibly weak...

▲ Use the exploding cans of cream corn to cheat your way to the mayor's job.

◀ Just imagine, all this could be yours if you win the Rally and become SP's mayor.

► Stan's sister may have a brace on her teeth, but that won't stop her tackling these huge jumps. She's gonna win!

▼ Damian's just fired a rocket, hoping to blast the racer in front. There are four more power up boxes on the road ahead, so the Devil's kid won't be unarmed for long.

Take your pick

There are the usual single player and multiplayer gameplay options available for all South Park fanatics. Choose one of these and burn up the track...

Story

The same as most tournament modes. You earn points for each race and the total is added up at the end. The one with most points gets the mayor's job.

Practice

Jump in your car and try any of the unlocked courses or characters to get yer fastest time. Ideal when you're struggling to complete a tough track.

Head to head

Up to four players can hit the track and compete in a one off race. There are better options available, but this is still a good laugh if you're after quick thrills.

Challenge

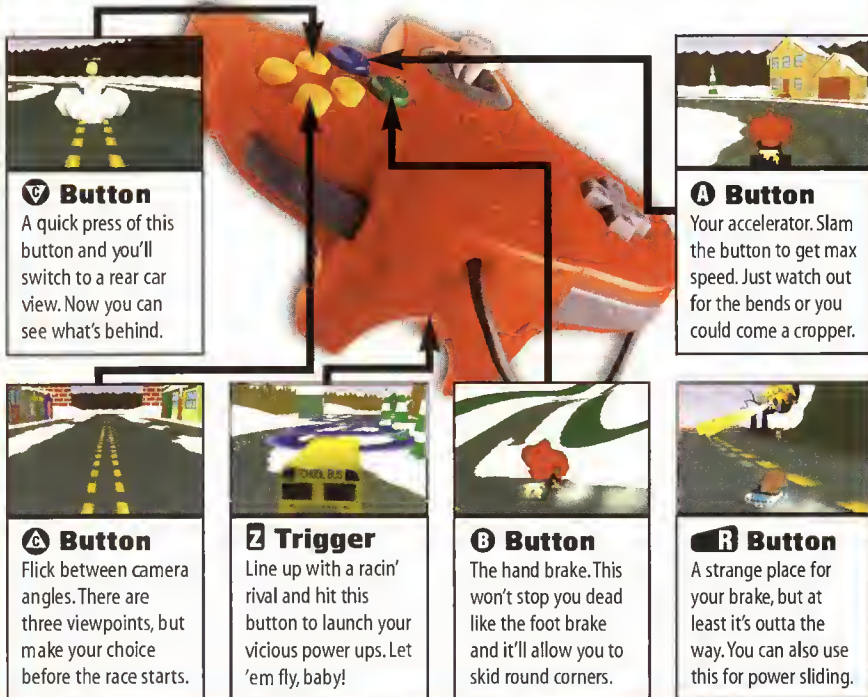

Choose yer favourite character and compete in a series of one off races. This option allows you to drive off road and use all the sneaky shortcuts.

Drive thru South Park

The South Park Rally play controls are similar to most '64 racers, so you won't have too many problems picking up the basics.

However, each of the wacky racers has a unique feel, so you'll need to think very carefully about your choice of mean motor.

Go for Cartman's car and you'll get excellent top speed, but heavy handling. Use Kenny's homemade piece of junk and you'll have good acceleration, but incredibly light handling.

Ⓢ Button

A quick press of this button and you'll switch to a rear car view. Now you can see what's behind.

ⓐ Button

Your accelerator. Slam the button to get max speed. Just watch out for the bends or you could come a cropper.

ⓐ Button

Flick between camera angles. There are three viewpoints, but make your choice before the race starts.

Ⓢ Trigger

Line up with a racin' rival and hit this button to launch your vicious power ups. Let 'em fly, baby!

Ⓢ Button

The hand brake. This won't stop you dead like the foot brake and it'll allow you to skid round corners.

Ⓢ Button

A strange place for your brake, but at least it's outta the way. You can also use this for power sliding.

Tell us a story

The main gameplay option is Story mode which plays the same as most N64 speedsters.

You've gotta compete in a series of races and earn points depending on your final position. At the end of the tournament the points are added up and the winner is announced.

Unfortunately, all the hidden routes are blocked off, so it's gonna take skill if you're to finish in first place.

Team

Now you can team up with a mate for two on two, or three on one battles. Once the teams are sorted, play either head to head or Challenge mode.

▲ Cartman's lil' truck is dead cool, but unlock all the characters to get his police tricycle. It's wicked.

▲ As the race begins, Cartman gets revvin' on the starting line. Beefcake might just win...

All yer faves

Every South Park character from the cartoon makes an appearance, although you're limited in your choice at the start.

As you win the races, extra characters are unlocked. Here are some of our faves...

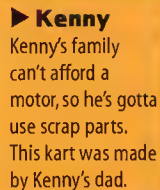

► Stan

The most sensible kid, and this is reflected in his choice of car. He drives an ordinary family saloon.

◀ Kyle

Kyle's family are rich and think they're better than the rest. He's opted for an incredibly flash sports car.

► Kenny

Kenny's family can't afford a motor, so he's gotta use scrap parts. This kart was made by Kenny's dad.

◀ Cartman

He's too plump to get into a sports car, so he was left with only one choice. Yep, it's a big, ugly 4WD!

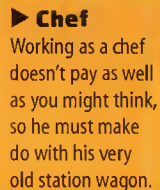

► Officer Barbrady

Even Barbrady's got enough brains to work out which vehicle to use. His squad car, of course.

◀ Mr Garrison

Garrison's getting on a bit, and his motor reflects that. It's a practical three door hatchback.

► Chef

Working as a chef doesn't pay as well as you might think, so he must make do with his very old station wagon.

◀ Starvin' Marvin

The only person who's poorer than Kenny. It's a bag of wheat on a set of rusty rollerskates.

New racing experience

South Park Rally also features loadsa single lap missions which come complete with pre race challenges.

These can vary from driving through Mega Man checkpoints before the other racers, to bizarre games of Tag as players try to pass on chicken pox. As we said, this ain't no Mario Kart copy...

► The checkpoint's up ahead. Drive over the square to set it off.

▲ You can use power ups to slow down the other racers. Here, Shelley's firing a homing rocket.

▲ Only a couple more checkpoints to go. Just make sure you don't miss this one, okay...?

▲ Stan's on the railway tracks again, taking a short cut which'll bring him out in front of the other racers. Kick ass!

Get a good view

You're already burning up the track, but you haven't switched camera angles.

Let's see your choices and how they change your gameplay experience.

▲ In car

Definitely not for novices. The bends appear from outta nowhere, and you'll lose your way if you're not clued up.

▲ Behind car near

The normal setting, great for getting a close look at your fave South Park racer. Hazards tend to pop up, though...

▲ Behind car far

A bit slower than the normal setting, but you get to see the hazards in plenty of time. Now there's no excuse for losing.

Loadsa bad language

Once again, expect the game to be packed with all the cool one liners from the cartoon.

Every character'll have three to five phrases for each situation, and you know some of the language will be a bit on the naughty side.

Not that you're gonna mind, but make sure your parents are out of earshot when Cartman comes a cropper.

► You don't wanna hear what Cartman says when he smacks into the side of a house at full speed. It's far too rude...

▲ With a mouth so filthy, lil' Cartman should be made to wash his mouth out with soap and water. What a rude kid!

▲ Some missiles send shock waves across the roads of South Park.

Pick a power up

One thing you know this game is gonna have is loadsa top power ups. And it certainly doesn't disappoint.

In fact, virtually every weird 'n' wonderful item from the cartoon has been used as a dangerous pick up. Here are four of the best you can find...

▲ Cheesy Poofs

Four cheesy poofs are fired towards the cars in front. Every time one makes contact with a rival, their speed drops by 30 km/h.

▲ Chocolate Salty Balls

Lob a ball and it explodes on impact. If it hits a car, it'll knock it clean off the track. A shockwave follows the blast.

▲ Staring frog

The Mexican Staring Frog can be dropped on the track behind you, rooting the other hapless racers to the spot for a few seconds.

▲ Cream corn

Kenny's fave. The Cream Corn is like a time bomb, which sprays yellow gunk all over the road when a driver dares to come close.

Even more choices

Not only are there loadsa cool characters to unlock, the biggest stars have extra vehicles. And they don't come much better than Cartman's police bike.

Yep, just like in the cartoon, he takes to the streets as a cop with lights flashing and siren blazing. Thankfully, he won't pull you over in SP Rally, but he'll still get angry if he doesn't hit the chequered flag in pole position.

▲ Cartman's in his police gear, hoping that the locals will respect his authoritah. Fat chance!

▲ Cartman heads towards the Reservation. No, Eric, you won't find your dad inside...

Manic multiplayer

Although we were only able to play one on one, the final version'll have lots of strange challenges for you and your mates.

One of the best options'll be a crazy game of American Football where you'll be able to score Touchdowns and Field Goals from the safety of your motor.

You'll have to wait a couple of months before we can pass on any more multiplay info.

▲ Mephisto has made a done of himself to go head to head on the bends.

▲ Ned's army jeep is just like the one he drove in Vietnam.

◀ Rivals Cartman and Kenny are scramblin' for the finish line. Our money's on fat Eric.

▲ Here's an interesting one, Jesus against the Devil! Jesus' cloud is miles ahead...

▲ It's a school grudge race as Mr Mackey faces Garrison.

▲ How marvellous to see you! Big Gay Al drives a yellow car painted with red flowers, the fool!

◀ Ol' red eyes, Satan, shows off with a few wheel spins. He'll have to do better than that to beat the South Park kids.

We think...

If you love Mario Kart 64, you're gonna go ga ga for this. The version we played was very early but, if all goes to plan, this'll be one of the '64's best racers.

Type: 3D Shoot 'em up

Release: December 1999

The bugs are coming

Move over Turok 2, 'cos a new sharp shooter's about to take you on the biggest blast you've ever clapped eyes on. Mutant alien bugs have landed on Earth and are swarming over the planet. Your mission's simple, just pack their hideous butts back to the galaxy where they came from. Trust us, Armorines is looking every bit an N64 classic.

▲ There are loadsa alien scum you've gotta kill.

▲ Send 'em packing with yer awesome weapons.

The clock's ticking

On the other side of the universe an alien race is on the verge of total extinction.

A group of the critters has travelled across the stars and landed on Earth.

With the rest of the man eaters about to touch down, you've only got 128 hours to save the world.

▲ Your first mission will see you getting dropped into snowy Siberia.

▲ You'll need to hunt through the base to the alien force's underground lair.

▲ The bugs are taking over the planet and chomping on any humans that get in their way.

Meet the team

There are two heroes you can choose to control in Armorines.

Each one has their own weapons and abilities to wipe out the meanies, but you won't be able to complete the whole game using just one of the soldiers.

Let's get down to HQ and meet 'em...

Tony Lewis

Rank	Weight
Private	230 lbs
Height	Best weapon
1.82m	Rocket launcher

Myra Lane

Rank	Weight
Private	138 lbs
Height	Best weapon
1.64m	Grenade launcher

Fight it out

Fans of Turok 2 will be pleased to know that controlling Lane and Lewis is exactly the same in Armorines.

But for those of ya who prefer playing as 007 for yer blastin' kicks, there's the option to use Goldeneye controls, too.

A Button
If you're out of ammo and wanna change yer weapon, hit this.

3D Stick
Get your perfect shot by aiming yer gun sight at any enemies.

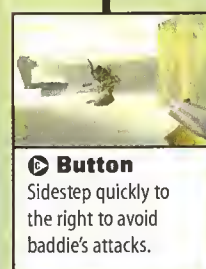

B Button
Brings up your shield when you're under heavy attack.

V Button
Back out of a tight spot when aliens are giving you major grief.

L button
If you haven't a clue where you are, this'll bring up the map.

D Button
Sidestep quickly to the right to avoid baddie's attacks.

R Button
Should you spot a ledge or wanna jump over lava, slam this.

A Button
If nasties are up ahead, get your butt in gear and chase 'em.

D Button
Strafe to the left and dodge any enemy fire comin' atcha.

Alien blasters

There are some awesome bug killing weapons to pick up and wield in Armorines.

As well as the team's mega powerful guns there are loadsa alien weapons to find, too.

▲ Call yer mum, there's a spider in the bath...

Galahad

Your main blaster is great for taking out the weaker aliens. Hold down the trigger to pummel 'em with lead.

Lightbringer

This shotgun will send their innards spewing out all over the place. Quick firing rounds are great if you're surrounded.

Saracen

If bugs are hiding round a corner let 'em have it with your grenade launcher. Just watch 'em bounce off the walls.

Scorpion

Choose this nasty looking weapon and it will jab and twist into any insects that dare to come close.

The bad guys

Get ready to hide behind your bed 'cos the bugs in Armorines are some of the scariest critters you'll ever see on the N64.

There are five different kindsa insects to blast to pieces in the game, from Fodders to Queens. And they've all got one thing on their minds, ripping humans to shreds and eating 'em for breakfast.

Have a gander at this lot...

Fodders

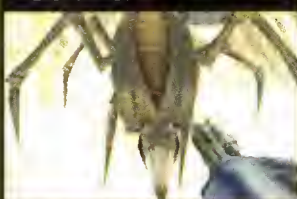

The weakest of them all. There are loads to kill, but a couple of shots will wipe them out.

Soldiers

As soon as these vermin see you, keep yer gun loaded, 'cos they'll be on ya as quick as a flash.

Guards

Keep your wits about you when these come crawling out of their hideout. They're tough, but their weight makes 'em slow.

Brains

These sickos create extra Fodders. So you gotta wipe 'em out first or they'll continue to send more of the pesky insects.

Queens

The toughest of the lot. These huge monsters will make your skin crawl. They take ages to kill, and their bite attack's nasty.

Time to save the world

If you want some serious blasting then Armorines is just what you're looking for. The game's filled to the brim with 18 missions over five tough worlds.

The action begins in the freezing conditions of Siberia where the aliens have taken over. You'll be dropped into the battlezone by plane and have to track down the pesky scum.

Later on, you'll get the chance to ride through their den and pop 'em off as you ride past. Cool!

► Lock and load. The insects could jump out at any second.

▲ Keep yer gun locked 'n' loaded for those critters as you search the base.

▲ The bugs will jump out of every corner so keep firing.

▲ Better clobber that beastie before it swipes you with its sharp claws.

Laser

Strap this on your shoulder and hear 'em scream when a powerful blue laser bolt hits home. Sorted!

Merlin

The aliens won't know what's hit 'em with this rocket launcher. Great against the tougher bad bugs.

Alien Weapon

Like the Scorpion, this is only decent when the enemy's right in front of ya. It reaches out and rips off their limbs. Yuck.

Shaft of Ra

This ancient killing machine blasts out power from the ball at the front and zaps anything in its path.

Enter the volcano

The next level in your mission to save the world takes place inside a volcano.

Even though you're equipped with a brand new battle suit, you'll need to steer clear of the white hot lava, 'cos you'll die if you take a dip in it.

Keep an eye on the holes in the cliffs, too, 'cos the aliens love to swarm out and surprise you. And the ledges are treacherous, so watch out.

▲ That lava will toast you if you fall in.

▲ Wipe out the other aliens as you make your way across the level.

▲ The Fodders are gonna eat some lead. Watch your step though 'cos that ledge is narrow.

Down in the desert

Now the action's really gonna hot up! You'll be dropped into the Egyptian desert where the bugs have started going on the rampage.

You'll have to duck 'n' dive through a deserted town, taking out the rotten beasts as they pour out of their hidden caves. You'll also have to work your way through a pyramid and shoot your way past the bugs down the dim corridors.

▲ The pyramid's guarded by these evil critters. Take them out to get inside.

▲ Go on, give 'em a blasting with the Shaft of Ra. Eat it, evil alien scum!

▲ The Egyptian level is jam packed with baddies. Wipe 'em out quick.

The Hive

This is the heart of the alien base and where you're gonna face your toughest test.

The scumbags are round every corner, so keep your cool against the vicious creatures or you'll be cut down to size. And make sure you keep 'em peeled for the alien eggs as you stalk round the Hive.

The beasties are getting ready to hatch, so one quick round from yer gun and there'll be nothing left.

◀ Shoot open the eggs to stop more beasties hatching open.
▶ Wait 'til you've got his eyes in your sights and slam the trigger. Kick its insect ass!

◀ Look at that thing! Get rid of it before it does you any damage. Blast it!

Bug fight

The aliens in Armorines are some of the scariest we've seen, but wait 'til ya get blasting.

If two of 'em are charging atcha just turn your gun on one of them.

It'll think its been hit by the other, so you can sit back and laugh yer head off as they scrap it out.

If you manage to shoot a Queen on the later levels, check out the Soldiers, as they run all over the place, not knowing what to do.

▲ Hey, that ugly bug doesn't look too happy to see ya. Make yourself scarce.

▲ Leg it outside and when you shoot at the two bugs, they'll turn on each other.

▲ The critter on the right's raised his sharp claws. He ain't happy.

We think...

If you want another mind blowing shoot 'em up, Armorines is gonna be one to watch. With terrifying baddies and action packed levels, this is looking like a beauty.

Shadow Man

For the scariest game on your N64 look no further than Shadow Man. It'll turn your blood cold...

Game Info

Price: £49.99
Release: 3 September

WE SAID "Shadow Man is gonna be big. The graphics are incredible and the action's breathtaking"

Don't get scared now

If you want a game with a great mix of gory graphics, bosses to make you wet your undies and an adventure to keep you up all night, Shadow Man's it.

You travel across creepy worlds from Liveside to Deadside, to stop Jack the Ripper and Legion before they create the Asylum, a terrifying place that'll house the world's sickest psycho killers.

Packed with red hot weapons and voodoo magic, it's gonna chill you to the bone...

▲ Use yer brain and blasting skills to stop Legion in this mind blowing adventure game.

▲ The monsters in Shadow Man will make you wet yourself. They're the creepiest we've seen on the '64 yet.

Shadow meters

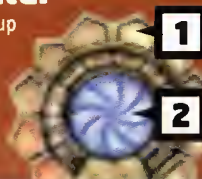

As you battle it out on your way to Asylum, keep an eye on the meters in the corner of the screen.

They change when you switch from Mike to Shadow Man. Let's take a closer look ...

Mike's Shadow meter

1 Life force Your health level. It's made up of ten pieces. It only goes up to five, but find the altars to top it up to the max.

2 Air level Plunge into the water and the blue centre of the meter'll start falling. Don't stay under for too long.

Shadow Man's meter

1 Health bar Your Shadow level. Collect Dark Souls and you can increase it to a max of ten.

2 Shadow Power This shows the power of your Mask of Shadows and the Shadowgun.

3 Voodoo Collect skulls and you'll be able to use any voodoo weapons you come across.

LOOKS The atmospheric levels are amazing to look at and creeping round will scare you to death. The bosses'll have your heart pounding.

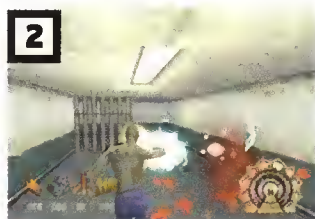

Get yer shootin' boots on

Grab your guns and get blasting, 'cos you can carry two guns at once in Shadow Man for some serious, gun toting action.

On the items screen, press 6 to put a weapon in your right hand and 7 to stick one in your left. Now you can use double firepower to blast 'em.

▲ The gun's good, but is it enough?

▲ Stick a shotgun in your other paw...

▲ ... and you'll get rid of any undead chumps no probs. Urgh, what a mess.

Scare ya to death

There have been some spine chilling games on the N64.

But Shadow Man's without doubt the most frightening title we've ever laid eyes on. With its dark levels and haunting music, this game isn't for scaredy cats.

Pour your eyes over this lot...

Shadow Man

Scariest level

New York Mansion

Most frightening bit

Meeting the nail gun killer in the main room. Gulp!

Turok 2

Scariest level

The Mother battle

Most frightening bit

When she first crawls down from the ceiling. She's one ugly mutha.

Legend of Zelda

Shadow Temple

Most frightening bit

Waiting for the monsters lurking in the ceiling to nab ya.

Superman

Scariest level

All of them

Most frightening bit

When you realise you wasted £45 on this pile of plop.

Use your power

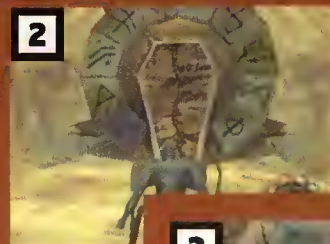

Along the way to the Asylum, you'll come across blocked gateways.

To get through you need to pick up the shadow power by shooting Govis.

As long as Shadow Man's got the same amount of power that's on the door, he'll be able to bust it open.

All you've gotta do is press 4 in front of it and you'll be able to walk through.

► Shoot open the Govi with your gun and you'll be able to increase your shadow power.

◀ As you move round you'll find these blocked doorways. You've gotta work out how to use 'em to get further.

► Press 4 in front of the door and the Man will use his mystical powers to break it open. Now you can continue.

Black magic

Not only can you blast away with a range of shotguns, there are more powerful voodoo weapons that Shadow Man can let rip with, too.

To use 'em you need to collect voodoo skulls, but be careful 'cos they use up his black magic power.

Check out some of the best you'll find along the way...

Asson

The ancient rattle of the voodoo sorceress. It fires burning skulls to fry any Deadside zombies.

Baton

You can use this razor sharp spear to stab and slice any enemies foolish enough to get in your way.

Flambeau

Not only can you use this as a torch, it'll burn down barriers in Deadside as well.

GAME LENGTH Shadow Man is packed with challenge and getting all the way to the Asylum is gonna take you ages. It's blinkin' huge!

Welcome to the Asylum

As you get closer to Legion and his cronies you'll have to battle your way through the dark fortress known as Asylum.

Not only will you have to fight your way through a maze of corridors, but you'll need to jump over flaming pits of fire.

Watch your step though, 'cos vicious beasts are out to getcha. So keep your guns locked 'n' loaded.

▲ That's the dark and dangerous Asylum up there. Are you ready to walk its blood dripping halls?

▲ Time your leap over the fiery pits or you'll be burnt to a crisp if you miss the ledge. Jump, Shadow, jump!

▲ Watch the flames as they can do some serious damage. You won't be any use if you're crispy fried.

▲ This scary freak wants to leave your blood on the walls. Use yer blaster to send him straight back to hell.

Read all about it

Although Shadow Man might not be familiar to some of you, comic book fans will have heard of him already.

Like Turok, Shadow Man has starred in his own series of top stories. Not only that, but he's also teamed up with the Dinosaur Hunter in a brand new book. Keep yer eyes peeled, 'cos it's awesome.

Command

Lock 'n' load for the first war game on yer N64. C & C's gonna blow your mind...

WE SAID "Command & Conquer's one player game will be brill, just what Nintendo 64 strategy fans want."

Let's play war

The wait for a strategy game's finally over. Time to let 'em have it with Command & Conquer.

Your mission is to take control of an elite army of troops and battle it out for control of the world.

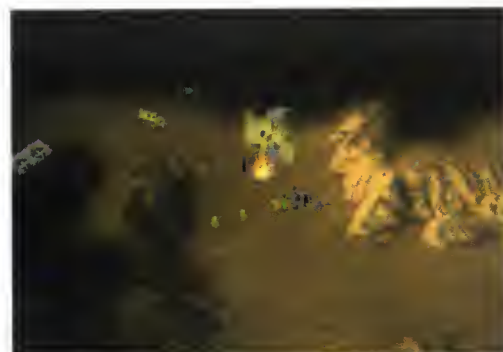

Build up your units and use all your skills to go behind enemy lines and destroy the enemy before they come and getcha.

Let's get down to the battlefield and sort out the mice from the men...

▲ If you want some serious gun toting mayhem, then Command & Conquer's the mental war game you've been waiting for.

◀ Plan your strategy and ambush the enemy in this top war sim. You will be victorious!

▲ Be careful as you march into the village. Enemy troops could be lurking anywhere.

◀ The ear cracking explosions will have the enemy running for cover. You'll be shell shocked by C & C.

LOOKS Although the characters and vehicles are small, don't think that's gonna spoil your fun. The 3D levels are really smart and the explosions and gunfights are cool.

Join the army

At the start, there are two forces you can choose to lead, the Global Defence Initiative (the good guys) and the Brotherhood of Nod (the bad guys).

The GDI

Who ore they?

The finest troops on the planet. You won't find any better.

What's good about 'em

The soldiers are the best shots and they use ace weapons.

What's bad about 'em

The units cost more 'cos they're the biz.

Brotherhood of Nod

Who ore they?

A band of terrorists that want to take over the world.

What's good about 'em

Extra troops don't cost much, so you can fight in larger numbers.

What's bad about 'em

Soldiers are cheap, but get killed easily.

Harvest time

As well as blasting the enemies into next week, your aim in Command & Conquer is to collect as much as you can of a crop called Tiberium.

The Tiberium creates crystals that contain precious metals. These can be mined and sold for tons o' cash, so the more you find, the better army you'll get. So if you're gonna build yer army for victory, you'd best get collecting.

▲ To get your hands on Tiberium, you'll need to take control of the Harvester.

▲ There's the enemy base ahead. Use your best forcers to take over the factory, quick.

▲ Move the Harvester to collect all the crops that you can see lying around...

▲ ... and once it's full, take it back to the factory for loadsa money. Mission accomplished.

& Conquer

▲ Use your car for a swift surprise attack. You can steam right into the village and kill any bad guys

First tip

Keep your troops clear of the Tiberium fields. If they walk over it they can lose energy and die quickly.

Listen to your orders

Before you go into battle you'll be given all the mission plans from the big cheeses.

They'll tell you all you need to know about the level ahead before you get dropped into the battlezone. So you've gotta listen up to what they've gotta say.

▲ The General's the leader of the GDI. Listen up, soldier. This is important.

▲ Take note of your mission and blitz those bazooka wielding soldiers.

▲ Seth will give the orders for the Nod's missions. Hmm, nice 'tache, mate.

▲ The terrorists will stop at nothing to wipe out everything in their path.

SOUNDS The speech is fantastic and really gives this game an edge. Turn up your telly for the screams and explosions, too. They're class!

Kill 'em dead

To stick a bullet between the enemy's eyes, you need to get your soldiers into a decent position first.

When the other side starts attacking, put the cursor over the enemy scum and pump them with ammo when it turns red.

Don't forget to keep an eye on the health of your troops, too. If their energy bar turns red then get 'em out, 'cos they'll bite the big one.

▲ Here's how you get your forces to scrap. Move the square onto the enemy.

▲ When it's positioned correctly over yer foe, it turns red...

▲ ... and now you can start blasting away with your weapons.

▲ Keep an eye on your energy, too. Get yer weak soldiers back to base, pronto.

On the battlefield

Now you're ready to get stuck in. The idea of the game is simple.

You've gotta move your army across the level and wipe out the enemy forces before they get a chance to attack.

Use the white arrow to get control of your troops. Drag a box round the soldiers you want and move the cursor to where you want to send 'em. When the box turns green, press A and they'll be on their way.

▲ Use the white arrow to select your team. Make a box round the soldiers...

▲ ... and move the green box to where you want 'em to go.

▲ Now your men are ready to make a move. Platoon, quick MARCH!

▲ Finish the level and you'll be able to see your men smash their way in.

The right men

In the earlier levels you'll fight with Minigunners, but later on you'll need meaner fighters like the Global Defence Initiative's grenade launching experts or the Nod's Flame Throwers.

On some missions you'll also need engineers to help you out. These dudes aren't armed, but you'll need them to take over an enemy base once you're inside.

▲ The Minigunners are the weakest of the lot, but they're cheap to replace if any get killed.

▲ Be careful with your engineers. You'll need them to take over the enemy HQ.

▲ These dudes are great if you wanna lob grenades over walls or into a pack of soldiers

What do you think?

Is Command & Conquer a cracking strategy blast or is it the pits?

Smash your way through to Club Mario on page 70 and let us know what you think. There are top prizes up for grabs for cool letters.

GAME LENGTH C&C's easy to get into, but hard to master. Finishing it with both armies will keep you busy, but there's no multiplayer option.

Special operations

As well as the main game, you can take part in secret missions and go behind enemy lines.

Not only will you have to go it alone and take enemy bases, but in other special tasks you'll need to rescue POWs, or get your hands on nuclear weapon parts before the other side attacks.

Make sure you've mastered the main game, 'cos these missions are really tough.

► The commando's got a great shot. Duck and dodge your way to their base and nab it.

Create your hideout

In order to build a base, you'll start off with a Mobile Construction Yard. To open it up, just move it into space.

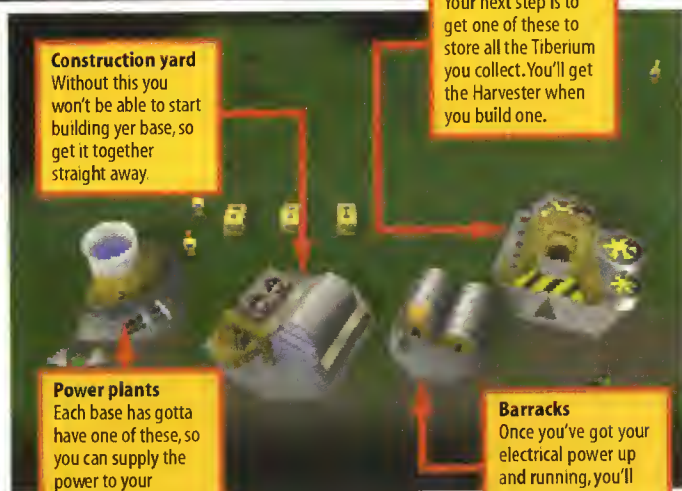

Now you can construct the buildings that you can use as a base to help you defeat the enemy. Let's take a look at a few of the bits and bobs you'll get...

Construction yard
Without this you won't be able to start building yer base, so get it together straight away.

Power plants
Each base has gotta have one of these, so you can supply the power to your barracks, and the rest of your hideout.

Tiberium refinery
Your next step is to get one of these to store all the Tiberium you collect. You'll get the Harvester when you build one.

Barracks
Once you've got your electrical power up and running, you'll need barracks to create soldiers.

Reach the enemy

To hunt down the bad guys you've gotta go and look for them. By marching your team into the dark areas you'll open up the level.

Keep your finger on the trigger, too, as the enemies love to ambush you outta nowhere.

The terrain will also effect your strategy. Your forces can't go over cliffs or cross rivers, so you'll have to find other ways to get round.

▲ Time to hunt for the bad guys. Leave yer base on the prowl.

▲ Each level will only open as you move round. Keep 'em peeled...

▲ ... as the enemy scum are ready to jump out and getcha.

► Watch out for an ambush in the woods. You don't wanna lose your crack troops because you were caught napping.

► You can use your armoured vehicles for cover.

Re-Volt

Game Info

Price: £44.99
Release: 3 September

Mad, mini machines are tearing up yer '64. Get on the grid as Re-Volt hits full throttle.

WE SAID "Re-Volt looks like it's gonna be a top burn up. If you're after another mad racer, this will be the one to watch."

▼ It's a fight to the front. Put your foot down and get round the first bend.

LOOKS Good variety of levels and backgrounds, but nothing too spectacular. The cars are smart.

Take your pick

There are loadsa cool gameplay modes which'll keep ya coming back for more. And unlike most racers, there are bonuses added to all the gameplay options, so it's worth checking out the lot.

Single race

Choose from any of the unlocked courses and go for the chequered flag in a one off race. Finish first and bonus vehicles could be yours.

Championship

Compete in a series of races and pick up points depending on your position. Win and you progress. Come second and you'll get a faster car for next time.

Turn 'n' burn

Remote controlled cars are taking over the streets. Choose from 28 highly charged vehicles and burn rubber across 14 tracks in seven wild 'n' wacky, real life worlds.

Everything's huge in the crazy life of a remote controlled car, and one small bump can send you spinning outta the race.

The game is packed with loadsa gameplay options and a brilliant multiplayer mode. Let's get behind the wheel and take a look...

▲ Push your driving skills to the max in your nippy radio controlled motor. Burn it across the toy shop floor.

◀ Slam 'em with some awesome power ups, and knock 'em right outta the race.

Time trial

Clock up the fastest time possible and try to beat it again and again. A ghost rider for the fastest time also appears, so you know if you're on track.

Stunt

A stunt arena which awards you with goodies for collecting stars. You won't get everything first time, so collect what you can and return with a better motor.

SOUNDS Cool, funky tunes'll have you foot tapping while you drive. Some of the explosions are weak, but it ain't bad.

Collect those bonuses

As you wheel spin round each track, keep a look out for the yellow stars that are hidden along the way.

If you manage to pick up enough you'll be able to win bonuses, from extra mean machines, to some ace new tracks. So get racin'!

Be warned though, as some stars are in hard to reach places. So don't waste time trying to get 'em. Wait 'til you've souped up your car and then give it a go.

▲ There's a star on top of the car. Put your foot down on the approach to the ramp.

▼ If your driving line's okay then you'll fly off the ramp and nab the star. All that's left to do is finish the race, to get some ace bonuses.

Choose your view

Whether you want an edge of yer seat racer, or wanna view all the action from a safe distance, Re-Volt's got it all.

There are three camera angles to choose from, so there'll be one here for you. Let's take a closer look...

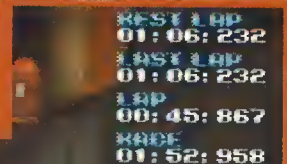

▼ Behind car (far)

For beginners. You'll see every motor as they try overtaking, giving you time to block 'em off.

▲ In car view

You feel every bump and scrape as you hurtle round the twisting track. One for experts.

▲ Behind car (near)

This is a great view. Not only does the speed of your car feel top notch as you go flat out, but you'll see the bends in plenty of time.

GAME LENGTH Very complicated handling, but you'll be rewarded if you take time to master the controls. Multiplayer is a laugh, but it could've done with a four player option and a Battle mode.

Get a boost

Dotted throughout each course are loads a power ups which can help you get back in the race, or prevent others catching yer tail.

Make sure you keep your eyes peeled for the yellow lightning bolts that're on each track. All you've gotta do to grab a power up is to drive through one. Wait for the window to reveal your weapon and the moment it stops you'll be able to go to work on your enemies.

There are loads of 'em on offer, so let's have a butchers at some of the best weapons in the business...

Oil slick

A puddle of oil is dropped behind your car. Vehicles'll spin outta control.

Firework

A rocket's fired at the car in front. It'll fly straight 'til it hits a vehicle or wall.

Shockwave

Fires out a blue bolt of electricity which throws cars into the air. Use this to get ahead.

Ball bearing

A huge metal ball fires outta the back of yer motor. It'll take out your rivals easily.

Clone pick up

Identical to the fake power up in Mario Kart 64. Drop it on the track and watch it explode.

Electro pulse

Electricity stretches to the car in front. If the connection's made, your rival's power's cut.

Bomb

Get this and your aerial changes to a burning fuse. Touch an opponent to pass it on.

Water balloons

Water great laugh you'll have! Fire a balloon at the floor, it'll cause all sorts of problems.

Wheel to wheel action

If you wanna give your mate a right good pasting and show them who's king of the track, you'll love the frantic multiplayer option in Re-Volt.

Not only can you choose your fave track to pelt around, but every motor can be taken for a spin too. There are even two computer controlled drivers to beat as well, for some manic multiplayer racing.

► And they're off! The motors are spinning away from the starting line. Better burn some rubber and get a shift on, 'cos they're leaving you for dust...

▲ It's neck 'n' neck as they scoot round the first bend. Any closer and they'll be off to casualty.

▲ Use the wicked ramps and kerb edges to overtake the other racers, or cut corners in style.

▲ After you've accelerated through the tunnel, shift into top gear to get over the gravel.

▲ You can fly over some cool jumps. Watch yer landing though, or your race'll be over.
▲ Get your motor revvin' on the starting grid for a flying start down the first straight.

ONE PLAYER ► The cars have got complicated handling and it will take time to master. Get the hang of it, and you'll be flying.

▲ You can race across the toy shop in some beaut lil' machines. Steer clear of the train's giant wheels though, or you'll be squashed as it trundles across the track.

MULTIPLAYER ► Racing your mate is good fun, but Re-Volt definitely could've done with a four player option, for the ultimate laugh.

Lack of racers

It's a shame that each race is only contested by four racers.

But they'll still be action packed and full of racing drama. Also, if you're a novice, the other cars'll slow up to make the race more fair.

▲ You make a terrible start.

▲ He's bitten the dust. Go for it!

▲ Slam the pedal through the floor.

▲ You're miles in front, victory is yours!

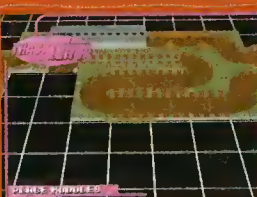

Design yer own track

You've completed each track, now you can create your own demon circuits.

Yes speed freaks, Re-Volt includes a Track Editor which allows you to design your own courses.

There are over 50 pieces available and the grid is very big, so you can make each race as tough or as easy as you want.

▼ Whether you want loadsa straights or some ace twists 'n' turns, use the grid to create a track.

▲ Once done you can race it for real. Go on, take him on the inside.

N64 Joypads We've tested all these pads out

Nintendo's official pad rules, though some may work better in fighting or shooting games.

Also, if you're a left hander, you may find some others are more comfortable.

▼ Sharkpad Pro 64

● Interact ● £22.99
Good for platformers, but just an okay pad.

▼ Trilogy 64

● Guillemot ● £19.99
It's all in the box. So you get a controller, Rumble Pock and Memory Pok.

▼ Superpad 64

● Interact ● £14.99
Great for left handers into fighters. Suits you, sir!

► Makopad

● Interact ● £19.99
Cool pad. Suits left handers. Good for shoot 'em ups.

Best of the rest

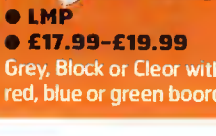

► Manta Ray

● Nu Gen ● £19.99
Name sounds oce and the controller looks the biz. Plays better'n average.

▲ G64 Controller

● LMP
● £17.99-£19.99
Grey, Black or Clear with red, blue or green boards.

► StingRay 64

● Thrustmaster
● £19.99
Looks good, but 3D Stick spins, so it slips off yer thumb loads. Boo!

▲ Mirage

● Wild Things ● £19.99
Ace joypad. Feels nice 'n' chunky. Response from 3D Stick and D-Pods are tops.

► Official N64 controller

● Nintendo
● £19.99
They invented it. It's the very best. And it's much cheaper now!

N64 Magic

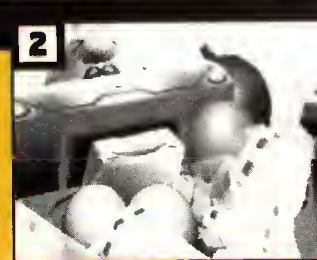

Let's have another look at a classic moment of Nintendo gaming.

Mysticol Ninja 2 Starring Goemon is a superb return for the spikey haired dude.

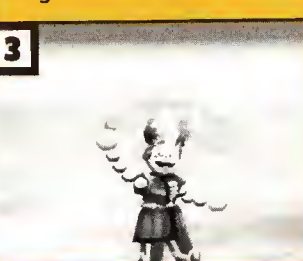

And the first robot bottle, against tin con Bis moru Elegant is a total corker.

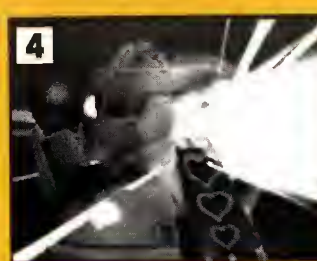

▲ Looks like trouble. Bis maru may be a cutie, but she packs a serious punch.

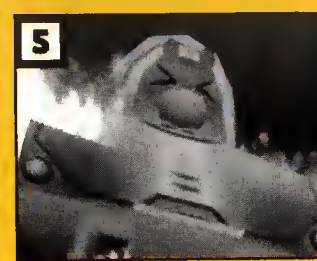

▲ Lay into her right from the off with yer vicious repeated punch move.

▲ If the scrap gets too serious, you can switch robots and use Impact instead.

▲ When it's properly charged up, hit the bag of bolts with yer cool blast beam.

▲ She's out for the count. But what an awesome battle it was.

Star Wars Episode 1 Racer

In race taunts

Don't you get annoyed when the big bully racers bump you off the track when you're trying to pass 'em?

Time to get yer own back! Here's a way of slagging off yer opponents as you pass 'em on the track. We don't understand the alien speech, but we're sure it's rude.

WARIO'S WINNER!
David Marshall,
Birmingham

▲ Any character other than Sebulba. In a race and near an opponent, double tap R to hear cool alien swearing!

WWF Warzone

Finally, how to get 40 Attribute points

Loads people wanna know how to get 40 Attribute Points for a created wrestler and earn the Rattlesnake secret character. Here's how...

WARIO'S WINNER!
Ryan Gleave,
Cheadle

Get the 15 extra attribute points

▲ Create a character. You start with 25 points. Get another four by winning Challenge on Hard. Win one Versus match on Hard for one point.

▲ Win one Tag, Cage and Weapons match on Medium or Hard level for one point each. Thrash Royal Rumble on Medium for another two. Then Hard for three more.

▲ Win Gauntlet for two more. That's 15 added to 25. Magic 40! Don't forget to save after gaining new points. And set bout time limit to 5mins to win quicker.

Hot Game Help

If you're getting annoyed with your gaming problem, all you gotta do is write to Al C! He can sort out any prob, big or small.

Mortal Kombat 4

I've had MK 4 for ages, but still haven't found the secret characters. I'm really desperate, please show me how to do it so I can show off to my friends!

Paul Baker, Fordingbridge

■ Meat Arcade battle. Character select screen, go into Group. Beat yer mate. Back to character screen and Group. Beat all other characters. Your fighter will now turn into Meat for as long as you keep winning.

■ Noob Saibot Get Cheat screen up by holding Q + V on Continues in options menu. Go to character select screen, highlight Hidden. Press A twice, Q then Q + V.

■ Goro Get cheat screen up. Go to character select screen, highlight Hidden. Press A three times, Q then Q + V. Goro's all yours.

WWF Warzone

I've just swapped 1080° with my brother for Warzone. I have a cheat called 'Pasta' and I don't know what it is. Can you help?

Tom, Lancing

This is a weird one, Tom. Pasta mode allows you to access long hair in the create a character option. Don't ask us why they called it that though.

▲ With Pasta mode you'll be able to create long haired hippy wrestlers.

Legend of Zelda

I am totally stuck on the Spirit Temple. Can you print a guide on how to get through it?

Scott R Alexander, Slough

■ We did, in ish 77, you can get the back issue if ya wanna. But here are a quick few tips for the hard bits.

1 You'll have to do some parts as lil' Link and some as adult. 2 Use Boomerang or Arrows to hit switches and Din's Fire to light torches to activate more switches. Killing enemies also opens doors.

3 Use Lens Of Truth to see things you wouldn't normally. 4 Push statues to reflect sun rays to opens doors. Sun rays also crumble the face of the big statue that leads to boss room.

5 When battling Twinrova, reflect one attack onto the other witch with yer Mirror Shield. Never absorb two different attacks. When the witches join, hit her with ice and fire beam reflections, then sword her.

V Rally Edition 99

Help me please! I'm just about to feed my N64 to my dog! I just can't seem to get your V Rally cheat for all cars and tracks to work! What am I doing wrong?

Matthew Chesham, Lancaster

■ This is a bit of a 'mare Matthew. Here's how. 1 At press start screen, hit L + R then Q, D then L + R again. 2 On to game select screen, then hold Z and tap L.

A new option called 'Cheats' will appear which gives you access to all cars 'n' tracks.

If you still can't get this, try step 1 a few more times (up to eight) before going into the game select screen and step 2. That should work.

▲ Use the Mirror Shield to reflect light onto the sun signs to open vital doors.

FIFA 99

I was looking at your tips and you said that Ronaldo is in FIFA 99, but his name is A. Calcio. I don't have this player in Brazil or Inter Milan, but I have someone called G. Silva, is this him?

Anthony Chiu, Oldham

■ Yes, G. Silva is Ronaldo with his name changed, as is A. Calcio. Some carts have that name and some have the other, simple as that Ant!

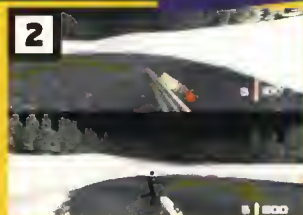

New Wayz To Play!

Bored of the same old games? Don't throw 'em away! Here are some New Wayz To Play!

Goldeneye on the run

▲ Two, three or four players. Bunker level. No Radar cheat. One player starts in the cell, and is on the run. Other players get ready for the ambush.

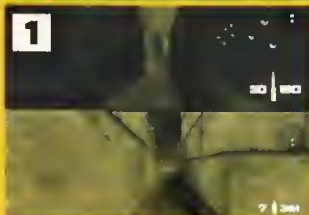

▲ The player on the run has to exit the Bunker and get to the Helicopter Pad without being shot dead. Set a time limit for it.

TIP FROM!

Paul Emsley, Denton

Goldeneye bomb squad

▲ Two players, Licensed To Kill, any level with long corridors, Proximity Mines. One player plants ten Proximity Mines in a corridor.

▲ Other player doesn't look. Then they go to the corridor and try and shoot through, get one point. Swap over.

TIP FROM!

Colin Murphy & Tony Dorgan, Ballincollig

▲ Banjo Kazooie

When fighting Grunties I can get as far as when she puts her shield around her, but I always die. What do I do next?

Noel Dempsey, Co Wicklow

■ Right, all of you who are good enough at games to have completed the awesome Banjo Kazooie. Help poor Noel out, and we'll reward you for being the best of the best.

▲ The Legend of Zelda

I still need one more bottle in Zelda. I've got the one from the chicken woman and the one from the bottom of Lake Hylia, but where's the last?

Gareth Jones, Runcorn

■ Michael Wu not only told us you get it by catching Poes on Hyrule Field, but drew us a map, too! If ya wanna know how to get it, send us a stamped addressed envelope.

Diddy days

Are you crazy for Kong and dizzy about Diddy? You've just gotta check out Donkey Kong Country on magazine show, X-press. Catch it on Fox Kids, the cable, satellite and digital channel.

You can watch this cool computer toon every weekday at 7.30am, 12.30pm and 6.00pm in the evening, and 6.00pm at the weekends. Don't forget!

No cheating!

All of these challenges are set so that true gamers win through. But we keep getting entries from cheaters.

These include American and Jap racing game entries. You can't use any gaming cheats to help you get good scores unless we say so, and no invincibility cheats should be used. Ya got that?

Dirty cheaters MAY get away with it, but do ya really wanna risk wasting your time and having your entry disqualified? We thought not. Big Donkey is watching YOU!

What to do

You can enter any challenge you see on this page, including the league tables.

So, if you fancy your chances at gaming fame and fortune, here's what you do...

1 Pick yer challenge, slam on yer N64 and get yer high score. 2 Take a pic of the TV screen with no flash. Taking it at an angle with the curtains drawn'll help. Or videotape your entry. 3 Write your name, address and score both on the photo/videotape and on a separate piece of paper. 4 Tell us how you scored your best time. We may well print your top tip. 5 Also, pop in a recent pic of yourself looking daft. 6 Now post it to:

Your Scores, NOM,
Angel House, 338-346
Goswell Road, London
EC1V 7QP.

7 Buy the mag to see if you made it to our Hall of Fame. If yer mug's in the mag your mates'll be well impressed.

Points win prizes!

If your score comes top of any of our high score leagues, then you'll win a cool official Nintendo Controller Pad or Rumble Pak. Awesome!

Mega Challenge!

▲ We found the best Goldeneye players in the UK and got 'em to Deathmatch. Who was victorious? Turn the page to find out...

The results

The latest final in our ever popular Mega Challenge took place recently at NOM Towers. Once again, the baddest Bondsters in the country gathered to find out who was best of the best.

The air was electric as the contestants waited for the most important contest of their lives. Games and Nintendo 64 goodies were up for grabs, and fame or ridicule in NOM was at stake.

Who was the victor? Who was the champ? Could the cream of UK Deathmatchers hold their own against the mighty NOM? Turn the page for a blow by blow report.

WHO WON?

Turn over to find out

The Challenge

The latest and greatest Mega Challenge was held recently at the mighty NOM Towers.

All the finalists arrived early for a chance to see and play some of the latest games before the big Deathmatch crunch time.

John Pollard and Mark Dolan got a flight in from Dublin, Slide made it from the Kent coast and Joe Donhou only had to travel from London's East End.

The contestants

Mark Dolan

Lives in Nenagh, Ireland
Deathmatch character
Ourumov

Quote of the day Don't hide on the balcony! You big jessie!

Joe Donhou

Lives in Chingford, East London
Deathmatch character
Trevelyan

Quote of the day It's about time he died, innit?!

John Pollard

Lives in Dublin, Ireland
Deathmatch character
Bond

Quote of the day How long left? Please say soon!

Slide

Lives in Westgate, Kent
Deathmatch character
Xenia

Quote of the day Slap 'im! Slap 'im!!

Practice sesh

It was clear right from the start who was going to be the favourite in the final.

It seems that John was born to play Goldeneye. He raced ahead, but then missed a few kills and Slide took the opportunity to catch up. But John finished well ahead of the pack.

► Joe Donhou holds his head in his hands, as John takes him out yet again. How's he gonna take the master out in the big final?

The final challenge

The time of reckoning had arrived and, after John's 00 Agent skills in the practice round, the others wanted sweet revenge!

The details of the contest were decided, twenty minutes in the Stack, Licensed to Kill. Slide got the first point, but it soon became clear that John wasn't having any of it as he shot into the lead straight away. Cool and confident, he clearly knew his Deathmatch tactics and planned to use 'em to the max.

At any point in the game he had at least twice the other competitors' scores, and his final tally was way ahead of the others. We'd found our winner!

Mark fears for his gaming reputation as Joe sneaks up on him from behind. Run Mark, run!

▲ The sad truth that he's not going to catch up in time dawns on Slide.

Scores

John	65 kills
Slide	31 kills
Joe	27 kills
Mark	21 kills

▲ John utters a sigh of relief and a cheer of celebration at the final whistle.

The prizes

There was no argument as to who was the best at Goldeneye Deathmatch on the day. John really was the man, but the runners up certainly didn't go away empty handed.

All the finalists were given a steering wheel, controller, NOM T-Shirt and other stuff for their troubles. Can't be bad!

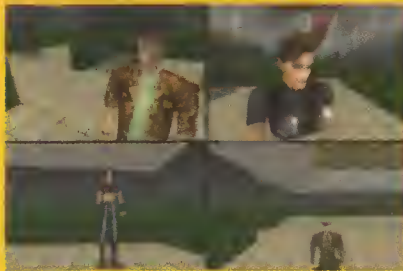

The victoriously beaming John said a big thank you when he got all the games he wanted, along with a steering wheel, limited edition controller and loadsa other stuff. Cool!

Taking on NOM

We'd had a couple of practice rounds and we'd certainly picked our favourite, but it was finally time to see just how good our Deathmatchers really were.

Rory and Alex F challenged our Irish friends John and Mark to a Turbo Mode session in the Stack. And we kicked their asses!

Alex F won by one point over Rory, with 61 and 60 kills, John came in third with 24. Poor Mark only just made double figures! We win!

▲ Alex F always beats us in our lunchtime Deathmatches, and slaughtered the Mega Challenge finalists. Is he the world's best Deathmatcher?

◀ The lads celebrate a great time playing Deathmatch, not to mention loadsa cool Nintendo prizes!

▼ John holding on to his prizes like there's no tomorrow! You would too, if you got all this free stuff!

Mega Challenge!

This is it, the moment you've all been waitin' for! The NEW Mega Challenge. N64 footballers gather round, this one's for you.

See below for what to do to enter the next Mego Challenge...

Any FIFA game

You're now reading your ticket to heaps of free Nintendo gear!

Play through a whole league (UK or International) as West Ham or England, get one of the four highest points scores and you're in there!

You'll be whisked to NOM Towers to play the footy challenge of your life. Just show us a photo or video with your final league standings.

▲ Your path to football gaming glory starts here.

Got the skills?

All the Goldeneye finalists walked away with loadsa top gear.

You've seen the smiling John Pollard with his hands full of awesome Nintendo prizes and believe us, this could be you!

This is a long challenge, and it's gonno separate the FIFA fanatics from the sloppy Sunday leaguers! Have you got what it takes?

Even if you make it to the final by cheating, you won't be able to on the day. And you'll be up against the best footie freaks in the country, so you'd better be good.

You can cheat by swapping the teams around mid game so the N64 wins, but is it worth the risk? Other entrants will probably have more wins and a better goal difference.

Closin' date and rules type stuff

- 1) Closing date for entries to be announced.
- 2) For the final contest itself, we make the rules! The teams you play with will be drawn from a hat, as will the venues. The game set ups will also be decided by NOM.
- 3) Finalists who cannot make the stated final date will be disqualified and their place in the final given to the fifth place finalist.
- 4) The decision of the magazine is always final. So no arguments, okay?!

WE SAID "The speed's incredible and the tracks are just outta this world."

Mastering multiplayer

Yer mate won't see you for dust!

If you're really good in one player mode, you're half way to being the multiplayer master. But you can always improve.

There are certain tricks and tactics that you'll need to use in order to be the podracing champ every time.

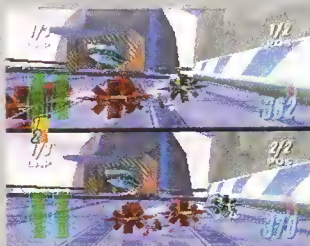

▲ If in a racer and yer mate is on your tail, take the insides of bends and move from side to side on straights. They won't be able to pass.

▲ Speed starts can mean the difference between winning and losing. At point where you would hear 'Go!', hit A for a turbo start.

▲ If you are using a bigger pod like Mars Guo or Sebulba's, use it to your advantage! Smash yer opponent whenever you can.

▲ Try double tapping R when you are in a race, to taunt yer opponent. It's a laugh. Also keep R held down while going through treacherous turns, so you won't blow up.

▲ Choose a pod with as high a top speed and acceleration as possible. Good racers can get away with not having other features, but not these. If you lead from the front, you'll win.

Executioner

Planet Oovo IV

Metal pipes and treacherous wind tunnels here. There are loadsa chances to boost over narrow tracks, but you gotta be good at steering to get over.

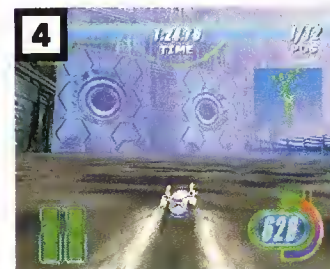

An industrial looking track, it's got the game's most well hidden short cut.

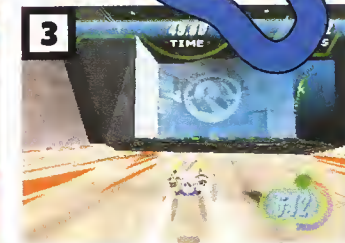

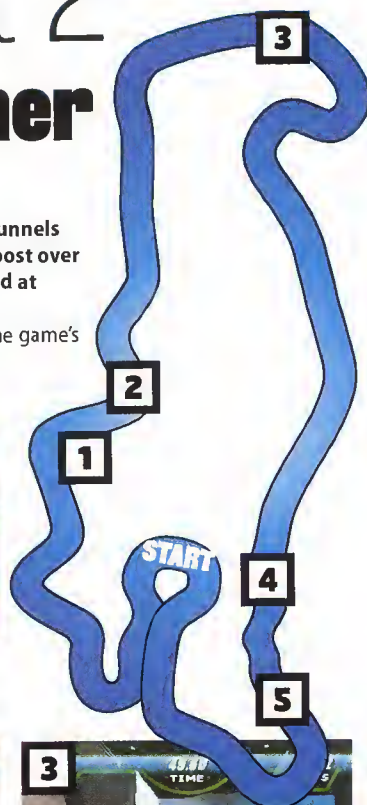

▲ As soon as you hit this tunnel you'll have to brake if you want to make it to a major short cut.

▲ Head up the slope on the left after the tunnel and it'll take you through a wide track that lets you boost twice.

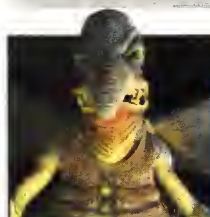

▲ After a luminous pink rotating tunnel you'll have four route choices. All lead through muddy tunnels. Right is best.

▲ You should stop almost to a standstill here. If you don't, you'll crash as yer pod tries to enter the downward wind tunnel.

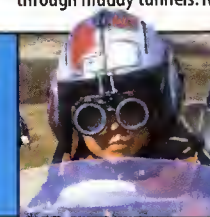

▲ Back into wind tunnel. Less rocks in here mean that if you push A you can boost through most of this.

Anakin's speed tips

Always wait 'til you absolutely need to before buying parts. You might buy less powerful parts in a rush when newer, better parts will soon become available.

Sebulba's Legacy

Planet Malastare

A mountain range, with methane lakes and many short cuts.

Sebulba loves this track 'cos there are loadsa chances for him to flash his vents atcha. Scream into first place quick so he doesn't get a chance to!

1 No chance to boost at all at start. A sharp right turn as soon as the lap begins means you won't even reach top speed.

2 The green methane mist will blind you unless you know what you're doing. Follow the floodlight to next part of track.

3 Here's a small short cut on the left. It'll only shave a bit off yer time if you know it well though, as it's rocky and treacherous.

4 SHORT CUT This string of floodlights signals this track's major short cut. Head through a small cave opening, in the right wall. You'll come out miles ahead.

5 SHORT CUT And the second major short cut on Sebulba's Legacy. When you see the starry sky and rock structures, slow and stay to left of track.

6 SHORT CUT You'll hug the outside of the track and head into a long boostable straight. It's a different route to the one if you'd fallen down, and much, much faster.

7 If you fall off the track here, you'll have to wind your way through a metal tube that's much slower than the other route. So don't, okay!

Grabvine Gateway

Planet Baroonda

A track set across desert plains and jungle swampland.

Get ready for two sets of bends that are the hardest in the game. Watch for a short cut that opens on the second lap.

1 Watch for this tall stone pillar, as soon as you see it straighten up, push ○ and boost this section.

5 SHORT CUT Brake here or you'll explode. On second lap turn sharp right after this for short cut.

3 But for now, take these craggy sharp turns on first lap. Brake hard so you don't hit outside bends.

5 Hold R all the way, to have your repair systems working overtime.

6 Outta the frying pan and into the fire! A series of more very sharp bends. Slow to 150mph into bends.

Nearly at the end of the lap, this bridge breaks half way through and can lead you crashing into the canyon below.

Anakin's speed tips

Always check the Junkyard first before buying new parts. The part you need may be there at a much cheaper price, and if you have three Pit Droids it probably won't break down in a race.

Andobi Mountain Run

Planet Ando Prime

This Ando-Prime track's a lot tougher than the others.
Like the last track, a short cut opens up on the second lap.

▲ As you near the end of the first lap and the lap laser is in sight, brake hard and go into the tent for a long short cut.

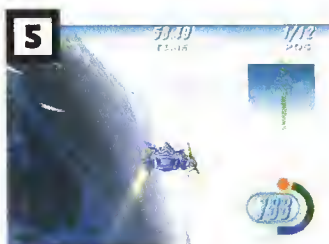

▲ Here's the first fork. Take the right side, it's a bit longer, but you'll take it quicker, 'cos you can go faster.

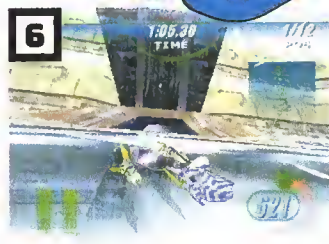

▲ Watch for the bridge with icicles, 'cos very soon you'll have to brake sharply for a hard right turn. Hit the brakes, quick!

▲ As soon as you see this statue, straighten up, hit O, heat up yer pod's engines and boost...

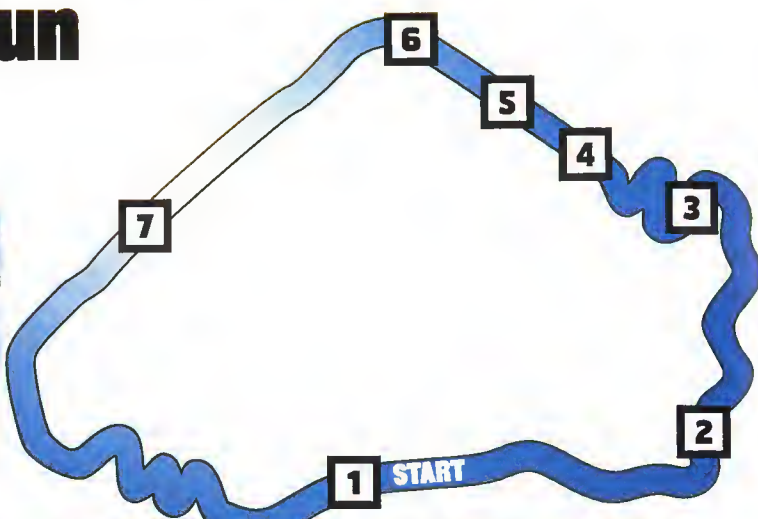

▲ ... you'll fly high in the air and zoom over any opponent close in front. Take a second to check out that view!

▲ When you land, brake and straighten up, 'cos you'll have to squeeze into this narrow opening that leads to a tunnel.

▲ Brake after the tunnel. Hug left of track to find a crack in the wall for a wicked short cut.

Dethro's Revenge

Planet Ord Ibanna

Built miles up in the air against the backdrop of an evening sky.
Not really any short cuts here, but relatively wide tracks make for easy overtaking and fast speeds.

▲ Watch out for this stage. The track widens out into a circle and can confuse you into not heading for the arch.

▲ A set of two scaffold tubes. The top one is open and you can fall to the bottom. They're both the same length.

▲ Just stay in between these floodlit columns pictured. Slow if you have to and you'll be okay.

► You're in a safe area here, two routes to take. Go through tunnel, 'cos the upper route'll have you flying off.

▲ Stick to the track in an open area 'cos you must go through this arch at the end or fall off.

▲ Near the end of the lap here, straighten up, 'cos soon you'll be flying through the air in between the arch.

Anakin's speed tips

Boosting makes yer pod extremely vulnerable. A crash that'll normally just bump you will make you explode, losing valuable seconds. Don't boost when sharp bends are coming

Fire Mountain Rally

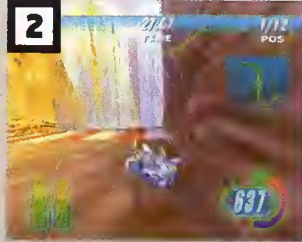

Planet Baroonda

Your first look at the gobsmacking lava tunnels, as this track winds deep into the Baroonda planet core.

Expect to see humid jungles and craggy rock faces flash past.

▲ Brake hard, then turn left at the end of this rope bridge as this rock comes out of nowhere.

▲ At a waterfall pull 1. There's a passage that this water falls down into. You'll fall too, if you're not floating.

▲ More tropical jungles and sharp U bends.

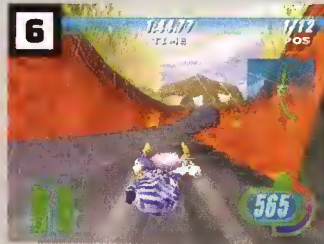

Watch for any stray tree logs that'll make you fly into walls.

▲ The road opens out into a burnt rock wasteland. Watch for the slightly fogged opening to the volcano.

▲ Inside, hug left side of the track so you don't get burned by lava. If you do land in it, hold 1 to avoid engine fires.

▲ Now the track gives you three route choices. Stay in the middle to get a straight and quicker exit.

▲ Back into the dangerous sharp bended desert rock area like in Grabvine Gateway, except now it's backwards.

Anakin's speed tips

Some tracks demand you take use the short cuts or you'll lose a race no matter how good you are. If you're in a part of the race where you always drop back, retry and look for a better route.

The Boonta Classic

Planet Tatooine

The track that Sebulba and Anakin battle for victory in The Phantom Menace. It's even got the service lane that shoots you into the sky!

So many short cuts to this track that you won't know where yer going at first!

▲ Veer off the track and up slope to slot in between two rocks. These lead to a jump back on to the main track.

▲ After sharp bends is the upwards leading service lane where you can float over all nearby competitors.

▲ This is really confusing. Stay to the middle of the track here and concentrate hard.

▲ After tall gap in the cliff face, be aware that a major short cut can be driven on to by turning sharp right.

▲ At part that looks like the Grand Canyon, slow down. Make sure you don't crash into rock pillars.

▲ Loads of arches mean you're in a completely free racing area. Hug the outside of the bends.

▲ The ickle fires coming out of the floor can set your engine on fire. Watch out also for a Sandcrawler.

WE SAID "Zero hour is a corker and you won't stop playing 'til you've found everything"

Mean streets

The first blasting level, but it ain't no push over

Shoot any fire hydrants you see, and tap B next to flowing water to recharge your energy to the max.

The alien invasion of New York has made all the inhabitants scarper. Yer first mission's to find the Code Card. It's an important piece of kit.

▲ Get out of water and kill Lizard Man in corridor. Go up stairs on right and kill nasties in parking lot.

▲ Then to guard's box, to open shutters. You'll have to kill a few beasties. Then head onto the streets.

◀ Blow grate on wall of club to access secret area and follow air ducts to find two helpless babes. What are ya waitin' for? Save the chicks!
▼ Exit club, turn left and follow road to find Duke Burger. Go upstairs to meet soldiers and get Code Card. Get yer sticky mitts on the card, and that's the first objective completed.

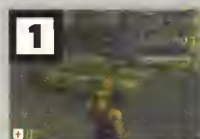

Open subway

Da Dook's going underground

The only way to get at the alien base on Liberty Island is underground, so you've gotta enter the subway system.

However, the alien scum have locked it, and they're guarding the entrance switch. You gotta head to the back alleys to open it.

▲ Go back the way you came to meet the tank. Walk behind it and follow road to see the helicopter crash.

▲ Go down alley on left of road where 'copter crashed. Jump onto roof tops to find Secret Area, and jump across...

▲ ... to next alley. Climb ladders and kill enemies. Now enter open room and flick switch behind metal box to open subway.

Find Time Machine part

Duke's Time Machine is vital for his mission

The subway system has opened up, but the level's far from over. There's still a Time Machine part to collect and babes to save.

▲ To top and hole in wall, fire Grenade at crack opposite. Then go left, up ladder and in for babe. Enter Duke Burger.

▲ More goodies. Exit Duke Burger. Go to subway opposite. Collect Auto Loader in secret area behind train.

▲ Exit down passage on left of track. Blow up crate inside for Time Machine part. Through tunnel to find exit icon.

Da Duke's gun slingin' tip

Use this level to practice with the Sniper rifle. It kills in one shot and is very handy against Cyanide throwing Pig Cops.

Destroy power core

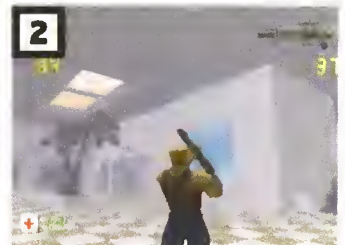

Yer mission's to hit the alien scum right where it hurts

The aliens' power core is the only energy source to their base. Once it's destroyed, they'll have no defence.

Getting to the core is no walk in the park. Keep 'em peeled if you wanna live.

▲ Door under walkway to left. Follow path to new section. Down gap to right, inside is babe and Service Elevator Pass, go back up.

▲ Elevator at other end leads up. Visitor centre. Babe in toilets. Go in Duke Burger upstairs. Down to door on right of entrance.

▲ Up stairs to turn lifts on. Down grate opposite to babe. Back to Visitor Centre and open lift to left.

▶ This takes you to the power core. Kill the Lizard Men who teleport in 'til the power core explodes.

Liberty or death

Starts off where you finished

Liberty is a confusing place, so try to remember your route. You're gonna need every power up to recharge your energy.

Get to overflow control

The Statue of Liberty is being used as the Alien HQ. You need to access the overflow control to go deeper into the scum's base.

▲ Up ramp, down grate. At door turn right, into grate to Secret Area and toilets. Get Scuba Gear and exit to opposite door.

▲ Armour in corner. Save babe. Through shutter, up ledge. High Voltage room has switch to open gate in next passage. Hit it.

▲ Go through open gate and down to collect Control Key and save babe. Back to Overflow control door and open.

Raise water level

Take a deep breath, we're going underwater

You better hope the Dukester's a good swimmer, he's gonna get wet now. Make sure you've got your Scuba Gear, 'cos you'll be in the drink for ages.

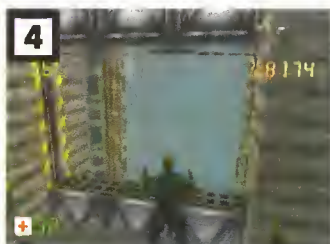

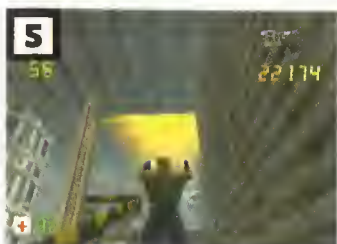

▲ Run across walkway and over gap. Down elevator shaft. Collect Atomic Health and kill any spiders which come atcha.

▲ Follow path past sandbags to three walkways. Over water. Sniper mobile gun and dive into water opposite.

◀ Swim thru gap to fan room. Blow it with Grenade Launcher. Thru into room, then office with babe and Pumping Station Key. ▼ Back thru hole and climb up ladder opposite, leading back to walkways. Open doors with switch. Jump down to walkway.

▲ Destroy mobile gun at top of stairs and use switch in room to raise water level. Go back to large doors and walk through.

Nuclear winter

Post apocalypse New York ain't much fun.

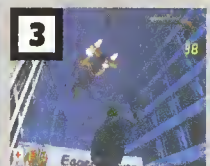

You've been teleported to the future to save a deserted New York. You gotta contact your base using a satellite, but you need Power Cells.

▲ Off cliff to platform, then to ledge and teleport to hotel. Go upstairs.

Delta power cell

Face the zombie invasion and blast the suckers

As you go for this Power Cell, things start to get nasty. Speed is everything if you wanna survive.

▲ Save babe. Return to hotel. Save more babes. Exit hotel. Turn right, jump down to yellow van. Hop across poison water.

▲ Go into parking lot ahead guarded by Pig Cop and teleport upstairs to collect Delta Power Cell to right.

Beta power cell

The final vital Duracell you need to nab

Last but not least, getting hold of the Beta Power Source.

You can't just blast yer way through the level. You need to be an accurate jumper and to keep looking out for grates.

▲ Jump over first carriage and swim under second. Take Service Access to right to large area. Beta Power Source is on pipe below.

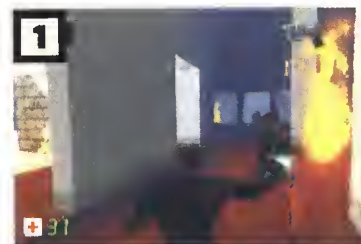

▲ Leave car park, turn right and follow road to subway. Babe to the right. Go down the right tunnel, avoiding any lurching zombies that leap out.

Activate Communicator

Get in touch with yer buddies at Nukem central

The final leg. Power up the Communicator and signal your base.

Sounds easy, but the aliens have other plans. Snipers and Octabrainz will attempt to block your path. And they ain't interested in talking!

▲ Up to grate and through subway. Back to where road forks. Now through other route, to an empty building. To elevator, climb ladder.

▼ Run across the rail track to satellite dish. If you've collected all Power Cells, the communicator'll work.

Fallout

Destroy forcefield generator and get back to base

The aliens have blocked off your route to the Special Forces base.

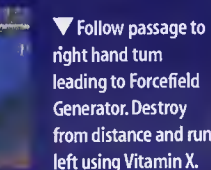

Destroy the forcefield generator and the shield will disappear.

▲ Destroy gun ship with Havoc Multilauncher. Use underwater passage in line with platforms to red switch. Hit Ⓢ to lower water. Kill sniper Lizard Man and teleport. Kill Lizards.

Find level exit

Keep on yer toes, you're almost there

The Special Forces base is not far away now, but the aliens are piling on the pressure.

Enemies will keep teleporting in to make your job harder. Keep listening out for the teleporter as they beam in.

► When you return to the water, go back to where the fire hydrant was.

Forcefield has disappeared from passage to left. Go through the empty space.

◀ Jump to ledge, kill Lizard, go up. Kill enemies, cross walkway. Jump to opposite roof.

▲ There's a ladder on wall, drop down to Time Machine part and babe. Pick up vital Machine part.

At the other end is Atomic Health. Climb back up.

▲ Jump to ledge and follow path. Once on roof Sniper appears behind you. Climb ladder in front, follow path. Leads to Duke Nukem exit icon.

Under siege

The US Special Forces base is under attack

The aliens are guarding the Special Forces base with their nastiest weapons. And they don't like visitors.

Da Dukester doesn't have long either. If you don't reach the entrance in time and take out all the bad guys, the base will be theirs.

▲ Follow path down right. Ladder on right hand wall leads to Secret Area. Blow up wall behind Pig Cop to find babe and other goodies. Drop down and enter tunnel.

▲ You've got one and a half minutes to reach other end. Follow tunnel, through two large doors to BMF Turret.

▼ If this thing catches you it's game over, so strafe with a rapid fire weapon. Entrance is now open.

Da Duke's gun slingin' tip

Octabrainz are the biggest threat here, 'cos they make you dizzy. Hit 'em hard 'n' fast to avoid being zapped.

Power up lab door

Ready to blast more alien beasties?

You've survived so far, but the aliens haven't given up yet. They still want to take the base, and it's up to you to stop 'em.

You need to reach the Defence system controls to stop any more mean alien reinforcements from getting in.

1 Go back through large door to lift on left. Jump down and collect Armoury Key to the left of new room.

2 Exit through door opposite. Turn left down corridor, through first door on left and then to Armoury.

3 Go to door at other end to get Gas Mask. Kill zombies and use switch behind the middle door to exit room again.

4 Go into lab then through doors at other end. Find switch on left in next room. This opens Time Machine chamber switch. Now you can progress. Leave Armoury and back into corridor. Go into medical lab. Through door to right, and right again.

Find secrets

Get tooled up with one of the best Nukem weapons

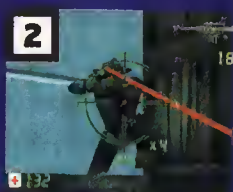

The level's almost over, but you've still got babes to save and secrets to discover.

One of the many secrets in Under Siege is the awesome BMF Thunderstrike weapon, which kills everything in its path.

2 Find hole on right of corridor to secret area. Babe and BMF Thunderstrike here. Grab 'em.

Da Duke's gun slingin' tip

Getting lost is easy, so remember your route through this level. You'll have to go back and forth all the time.

Activate defences

Stop the alien invasion dead in its tracks

You've cleaned up the aliens inside the base, but more are on the way. They must be stopped, the future of the Earth is at stake.

The Defence System controls are open, so get there quick, and activate 'em.

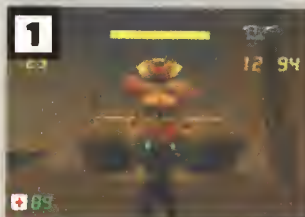

1 Return to the sewer entrance. Go through door to left. Use switch on right of next room to open doors on left. Go across walkway to end of level.

Boss Hog

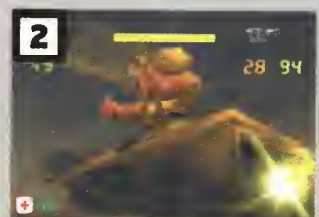

Use yer big guns to make this big porker squeal

Boss Hog is no pushover, so you'll need all your sharp shootin' skills to get through this section.

There are no places to hide, so you just gotta charge straight in and kill that waste of perfectly good bacon.

1 Boss Hog is fat 'n' ugly so it takes a big weapon to take 'im down. Yer best bet is Havoc Multilauncher or Grenades.

2 This lil' piggy is slow, but extremely tough. Aim for his top half, as it causes the most damage.

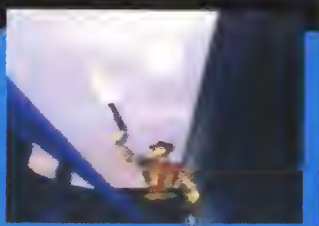

► Pick ups in most of the comers and on the walkway to the helicopter pad. Use this platform to shoot down at Hog.

3 You're not the only one tooled up with Grenades and a Havoc Multilauncher. Strafe around Boss Hog to avoid his attacks. Teleport outta there as soon as he's fried into bacon rashers!

Next month

Tune in next ish for more top blatin', babe savin' action. We go back in time to 1848 and kick ass Western style. Then Duke warps to England, 1888. Hail to the King, baby!

me down. Where was the Carmageddon 64 review?

You should be trying to make a good impression on your new readers."

Mark Reece, Thornhill, Cardiff.

■ Carmageddon 64 was delayed and the review would've come out well too early. Holding it back 'til its actual release is more helpful for the reader. Dave

■ Check out our compo in Blagfest on page 74. You can win a copy of the game and cool goodies, too. Shaun

Brain Strain

Reckon you're the ultimate Pokémoniac? Try our special Pokémon Brain Strain and test your knowledge. You've gotta get five outta five to be a true master. Good luck!

1 He collects the bones of dead Pokémon.

2 The Pokémon weapon in Smash Bros.

3 The most powerful of all the Pokémon.

4 Pikachu evolves into this pocket monster when he becomes an expert fighter.

5 What's the colour of the third Pokémon Game Boy game pak?

"I got Pokémon from America two months ago, and I've already played it over 75 hours. And believe me Nintendoids, Pokémon'll take over your lives this autumn. In my opinion, it's better than Zelda."

Nicholas Haynes, Orpington, Kent.

■ Everyone's getting pretty excited.
I first played Pokémon last year and I was hooked straight away. Dave

"Where is Twelve Tails Conker 64?
We haven't seen anything on it for ages. Is it still coming out? We want more info."

Aidan Hopkins, Hastings, East Sussex.

■ It's still in development. We've heard rumours that it's twice as good as Banjo. And with Rare developing it, you wouldn't bet against it. Shaun

Who's The Hero?

Guess the famous Nintendo character in five clues or less.
Look out for the others dotted through Club Mario.
Clue 1 I'm in the biggest game this summer.

You Review

Time for you to have your say about your worst and favourite Nintendo games. If you wanna give it a crack, it couldn't be simpler.

Follow the example below, get a mug shot of yourself and chuck it in the post. You could be next month's winner.

READER'S NAME Richard Williams

GAME NAME NHL 99

Best bit Body checking your mates and knocking
'em to the floor. Winning the game with England.

Worst bit England're pants.
And it's too easy to score against the weaker nations.

Graphics Brilliant hi res graphics. Players look very realistic and you get excellent close ups.

"I want a racing game which takes pure skill to win. I have Mario Kart 64, but the power ups let you cheat your way to victory."

Alex Peck, Malvern, Worcs.

Overall This is a fantastic puck pusher. It's great with your mates
and it's very addictive.
Get it 92%

▲ NHL 99's puck pushin' paradise.

■ F1 World Grand Prix II is definitely the game for you. There are no power ups, and it'll take lots of skill to win the entire championship. Shaun

■ Don't forget, F1 WGP is one of the Player's Choice range. You can get it for a bargain £29.99. Dave

"I was seriously considering buying GASP 'til I saw that you gave it such a poor mark.

I decided to buy WWF
Warzone instead, and I love it so much I play it every day."

Graeme Syme, Kirkcaldy, Fife.

■ You should all check out Total Test before buying an old game. You don't wanna get stuck with a dud. Dave

"Me and my mates are all desperate to play Pokémon. It's not fair that we have to wait 'til the end of the year."

Sam Cole, Stowmarket, Suffolk.

■ Hey, it's only a few weeks away
now. If ever you needed an excuse to buy a Game Boy, this is it. You're gonna love it. Dave

Who's The Hero?

Clue 2 I may be young, but I can still compete with the big boys on the track.

Ultimate Warrior

We can't get away from Pokémon at the moment and one even makes an appearance in Bryan

Groves' Ultimate Warrior.

If you can do better, get your entries in. There's another top Nintendo 64 game up for grabs next month.

Head Pikachu. He can use his Thundershock to wipe out evil enemies.

Body Link. His huge shield'll offer valuable protection, and his sword is great for slicing baddies.

Legs Stan. As a last resort, Stan's legs can be used to run away from danger.

"I cannot believe there are people out there who criticise Zelda.

They're obviously GreyStation owners who are jealous of such a fantastic game. You can't argue with your score of 97%."

Roghieb Mosrur, Bethnal Green, London.

■ It's by far the best video game ever and people still aren't happy! Dave

"I think you should make a Nintendo Official Magazine television programme.

You could review all the new games and give us news on forthcoming titles.

The only show we've had was Games Master and that was disappointing."

Kyle Anderson, Angus, Scotland.

■ It's a great idea, but I can't see it happening. We need a good video games programme. The last series of Games Master was terrible. Shaun

Name That Game

3 Ash's cute 'n' cuddly mouse Pokémon pal.

4 Dirt eatin', underground dwelling, platforming Nintendo hero.

5 Flying brain baddie in Duke Nukem. Don't mess with this evil dude!

6 Huge, coffin carrying rule breaker in WWF

64.

"I think Acclaim is the best N64 developer. Shadow Man looks fantastic, and South Park Rally's gonna be brilliant. In fact, I think it could topple Mario Kart 64."

Pete Summers, Upwey, Weymouth.

■ Acclaim is producing some top notch titles. Shadow Man could be its best game yet. Dave

■ It's been a great year for Acclaim, there's no doubt about that. Shaun

"You asked if 40 Winks would be better than Banjo and Mario.

I don't think it will. Banjo was ace and Mario's a classic. 40 Winks looks good, but it'll need a great review to attract me."

Poul Berentze, Cheadle, Cheshire.

■ There's no doubt that 40 Winks'll be a great game. Remember, no one thought Mario could be bettered. Banjo proved otherwise. Shaun

"The developers at Rare are geniuses. We've already had Diddy Kong Racing, Banjo Kazooie and Goldeneye. And Donkey Kong 64, Jet Force Gemini and Perfect Dark look even better."

Dorius Matthews, Portsmouth, Hants.

Power Pack

We've gone Pokémon mad this issue and so has David Campbell from Leytonstone.

David's such a huge fan of the lil' monsters, he's designed a cool N64 box for Pokémon Stadium.

Hopefully, the game'll be as good as your drawing, David. WipeOut's in the post.

■ Rare has certainly played a major part in the N64's success. Long may it continue. Dave

■ What a Christmas you've got in store. Your biggest headache is which games to get! Donkey Kong 64 is top of my list. Shaun

"I think Nintendo's being really unfair by releasing games in Japan and America before the UK. I want Smash Bros and I still can't get it."

Robin Williams, Cordiff, Wales.

■ It works both ways. ISS 99 came out in the UK long before America and Japan. Shaun

■ At least it's finally been confirmed in the UK. There was a time when we weren't sure if it was even gonna come out. Dave

"Castlevania is the best game on the N64. I think it's worth the Awesome award. Anyone out there who hasn't bought it should give it a go. It's brilliant."

John McCarthy, Moidstone, Kent.

■ Castlevania is proving very popular and you're right, it's an excellent game. Shaun

■ It's a great game, but Castlevania has flaws which let it down.

That's why it didn't get the Awesome award. Dave

"I can't wait for Pokémon. It's going to be huge and brilliant. We want it now!"

Adom Parker, Crook, Co Durham.

■ Calm down, it'll be out next month. We hope you like the wall chart. Don't forget to enter the compo. The T-shirt is really cool. Dave

"I just wanted to say that your mag is great.

Without the South Park cheats, I'd still be on level one."

Jenny Rowntree, Gillingham, Dorset.

■ That's what we're

Hidden Heroes

We've messed around with pictures of another batch of Nintendo characters.

Can you work out who's behind the warped pics? The answers are on p75.

▲ Kokiri kid with royal connections.

▲ This robo babe'll have you Quakin' in your boots.

here for. If a new cheat appears, you'll see it first in Official tips. Dave

Who's The Hero?

Clue 3 My vehicle can reach speeds well over 600mph.

Snappy Moment

Recognise the well known N64 developer? Anthony Sheridan from Marple, Stockport has taken a picture of games guru, Shigeru Miyamoto, and rearranged his funny face.

We think you'd agree that it's a crackin' mug shot, and well worth a Nintendo 64 game.

"We had so many great Super NES games come to the N64, but one is still missing. I really want Metroid."

Every previous edition was brilliant and a Nintendo 64 version would be awesome."

Phil Jordon, Evesham, Worcs.

■ Metroid 64 has been confirmed, but we haven't heard a peep about it for ages. Shaun

■ Hopefully, it'll appear some time next year, but we wouldn't put our lives on it. Dave

"My favourite TV show is Pokémon. I watch it every day. It's so cool I just can't wait for the Game Boy game to come out."

Joshua Kenney, Whetstone, Leicester.

■ It's a pity Pokémon's only on Sky One. If you haven't got satellite or cable, you're really missing out on a top show. Shaun

■ Our spies tell us it may come to ITV. So keep 'em peeled. Dave

"I'm writing to tell you that me and my mates have a Nintendo club. We meet every Thursday evening and play all the best

Who's The Hero?

Clue 5 When I grow up, I'll become Darth Vader multiplayer games. We keep league tables and award prizes for the best gamer at the end of every month."

Colin Lewis, Cheddar, Somerset.

■ Since last month's letter, it seems that quite a few of you have started your own cool Nintendo clubs. Shaun

■ Keep letting us know about 'em. You never know, we may come down one night for a few games. Dave

"Why did you give Vigilante 8 only 83%? I bought it and I totally love it. I would have given it at least 90%. All my mates think the same."

Bernard Puelec, London.

■ It's all about opinions.

Yes, it's a good game, but it's not worth 90%.

Dave

■ Only games

Reader Chart

James Hyde is this month's Reader Chart winner. Once again, it has a familiar look about it, but who wouldn't want these five ace games in their collection? Well done, James, expect your N64 game real soon.

- 1 Goldeneye
- 2 South Park
- 3 The Legend of Zelda
- 4 Super Mario 64
- 5 Mario Kart 64

which are must buys get the Awesome award, and Vigilante 8 isn't one of 'em. Shaun

"Please let me know when WWF Attitude's coming to the N64.

I've already played the Game Boy Color version which was great, but it's time for the big screen edition."

Peter Morris, Co Durham.

Who's The Hero?

Clue 4 I use the Force to help me win.

Your Art Pokemon Special

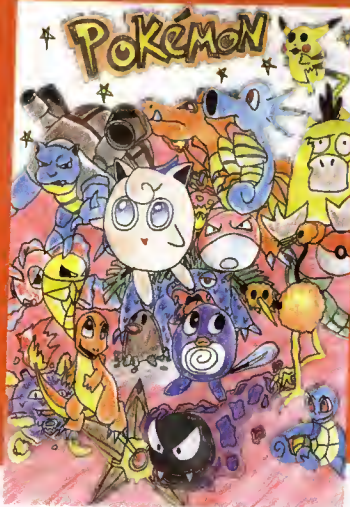

▲ Kelly Baker from Harrogate in Yorkshire sent this perfect Pokémon pic in. Looks like Primeape's dishing it out!

▲ This pic's great, but the artist didn't put their name on it!

▲ The Nintendo all stars have joined Pika and pals, in this pic from James Cross.

► It's a cool Pokémon party, from Chessington's Christopher Biggs.

▲ David Parkinson from Stockport reckons the Pokédudes could have a good stab at Mario Kart 64!

▼ Lil' Pika's the star of this ace art, drawn by Zoe Wodnough, from Ipswich.

Play Pokémon first

Wanna be one of the first people in the UK to play Pokémon? Here's your chance...

We've got 10 Pokémon Reds and 10 Pokémon Blues to give away, and all you've got to do is dial a number.

You'll even get the chance to challenge other Nintendooids in Pokémon duels at a special event in London.

The score

1 Call our Poké Line 0171 471 6696 on Monday 23 August between 3.00pm and 6.30pm only.

2 Follow the phone instructions, leaving your name, age, address and telephone number.

3 If you're a winner you'll be notified by Wednesday 25 August and be given details of the London event.

4 You must be able to travel to London for the event on Saturday 28 August.

5 To keep your game, you must attend the Played To Death day on Saturday 28 August.

6 You must have a Game Boy, to be able to play your game.

Call this number between 3.00-6.30pm on Monday 23 August only

 0171 471 6696

Small Print You must get permission from whoever pays the bill before you make the call.

Mario's Hit List

Drop us a line and you could win a top Nintendo game. Our address is Club Mario, NOM, Angel House, 338-346 Goswell Road, London, EC1V 7QP.

- Will Pokémon be the biggest thing this Christmas?
- What's the spookiest Nintendo 64 game?
- Attitude or Revenge. Which wrestle fest is best?
- Is Star Wars Racer better than the movie?

■ It should be out very soon. It's the best wrestling game ever, so make sure you get it. Dave

■ The Game Boy Color version was a disappointment, but the N64 edition's blindin'. Shaun

"Last month's free Jar Jar toy was the best ever free gift.

All of my mates bought the magazine and we're having so much fun with it. Thank you NOM."

Glen Humphrey, Ilford, Essex.

■ Yeah, we were well impressed when it came into the office.

We haven't stopped playing with Jar Jar either. Shaun

■ If you didn't get last month's issue, you missed out on a real treat. Dave

"Is there going to be a sequel to Zelda out on the N64? I hope so, 'cos I played it for weeks, it's blumming brilliant."

Steve Davis, Manchester.

■ Nobody knows for sure at the moment, but tune in next month, 'cos we should find out at Space World, Nintendo's huge show. Dave

"I'm already well excited about the new Nintendo console.

Fony better run for cover, it's gonna be awesome."

Mike Howell, South End, Essex.

■ It'll certainly kick Fony's butt and be the best console in the world.

But there's still loads of life in the Nintendo 64 yet. Shaun

Turok Rage Wars

Game Info

By: Acclaim
Type: 3D multiplayer blast
Release: December 1999

NEW FOR NINTENDO⁶⁴

● First ever shots ● Mega multiplayer mayhem

Check this out! We've got the world's first ever screenshots of Rage Wars, the third Turok blast fest.

Rage Wars isn't like the other Turok games. It's gonna be a multiplayer shooting frenzy which'll certainly give Goldeneye a run for its money.

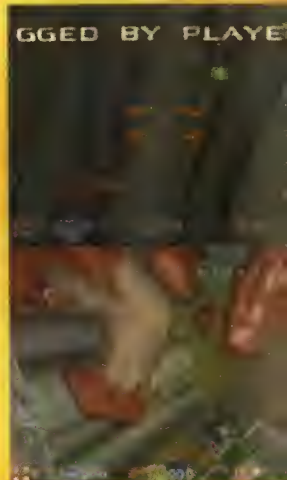

There'll be four gameplay options, including Bloodlust and Flag Tag, plus extra team challenges.

▲ Turok takes aim and he's ready to shoot. Kill the sucker!

◀ Not a situation you wanna face. Get the hell outta there before you're toasted.
▼ It's Turok versus Turok. Well, at least the good guy'll win. The graphics look totally awesome, and it'll be well fast!

▲ A body explodes from the full force of the blast. The camera's left dripping with gore. Lovely stuff! Rage Wars looks like it's gonna be the best multiplay blast on the '64.

▲ The dino's back. But this time Turok's facing him in a multiplayer feast.

We think...

Rage Wars'll give you all the blast action you could ever want. Expect huge guns, a great range of characters and loadsa blood. It'll be carnage at its best.

Rayman 2

The Great Escape

● Comical characters ● Loads of cool challenges ● Awesome platforming action

Game Info

By: Ubi Soft
Type: 3D platformer
Release: October

Get ready for Nintendo's latest platforming hero, Rayman.

A strange lil' fellow we know, but he's as tough as Mario and Banjo, and he's got just as many tricks up his sleeve. Check him out...

All Ray's animal friends have been kidnapped by evil pirate dudes, and it's up to our big nosed friend to save the day. Up and attem, Ray!

▲ Ray's a cool character, but what is he? No one knows!

▲ Wait 'til this rocket stops and you can hop on for a ride.

▲ It's just like the trench run from Star Wars! Brave Rayman has got to steer through his wonky version of the Death Star.

► The huge pirate ship passes over you. You can explore it later in the game. But for now, Ray's gotta concentrate on the training level.

▲ Ray skips over the lily pads to get across the lake.

Crazy races

Some of the best levels are the racing challenges. But don't expect to jump in a car and hit the track.

Rayman uses all sorts of weird 'n' wonderful creatures on his travels, and he even takes time out to try his hand at water skiing.

You'll need to use all your silky skills on the murky lake to swerve outta the way of giant wooden posts and massive bombs that are just waiting to wipe you out. Go for it, Ray!

▲ Ray's energy is getting low. Ski well clear of the obstacles or you'll be taking a dive into the soup.

▲ Make sure you hold onto the rope for dear life, 'cos this mad race really shifts at lightning pace.

▲ Behind you! Something nasty's creeping up on Ray.

We think...

Rayman's adventure has been a long time coming, but it looks like it's gonna be worth the wait. There's a great variety of levels, with something for everyone.

- ▶ You can even race against a mate in the awesome multiplayer mode. Our cash is on that mean looking buggy.
- ▼ The detail in the game is gorgeous. Just take a look at the stunning background.

Sprocket

- Huge worlds
- Cool new Hero
- Eye popping graphics

Game Info

By: Ubi Soft
Type: 3D platform puzzler
Release: Christmas 1999

If you thought Banjo and Mario were ace, you ain't seen nothing yet.

Sprocket takes place in a space age amusement park. On the eve of the opening, park mascot Jo Jo flips out and threatens to destroy everything.

The owners have only one hope. One wheeled, toy robot Sprocket must save Whoopie World.

▲ The lighting effects are brill. Eat your heart out, Mario!

Fun of the fair

Although the game's based around our lil' robot buddy, there's a cool option which lets you create your own rollercoaster.

Once your design is up 'n' running, you can take a front seat and enjoy all the thrills 'n' spills. Brill or what?

▲ You can plan and design your own cool rollercoaster track.

▲ The lil' fella can jump in his cart and go for a spin on your creation.

We think...

Sprocket could turn out to be one hell of a game. With its awesome graphics and killer gameplay, this should be a corker. Stay tuned for more info soon.

Destruction Derby

Destruction Derby is car crashing carnage at its best.

Motor mashers get behind the wheel of a super cool stock car and smash the opposition outta the race.

Just make sure you keep on eye on the other drivers, 'cos they're trying to force you into the crash barriers.

There's also an exciting multiplayer mode which includes options such as capture the flag and hot potato.

▲ If frantic, car smashing action gets you excited, Destruction Derby could be your bag.

Fast News

• Nintendo has linked up with one of the coolest designer labels.

The latest craze in America is the Tommy Hilfiger Game Boy Color, which can be picked up when you splash yer cash on Hilfiger gear.

This is the second time Nintendo has entered the world of fashion. Tommy clothes were also used to promote 1080° Snowboarding.

• Turok 3 could be out sooner than we first thought.

Although there are few hard facts, we've been told that it'll be shown this month in America, and it could be out early 2000.

The game will use the Turok 2 engine, but the multiplayer modes'll be a whole lot different to those in Rage Wars.

• Rev your engine and mash zombies as Carmageddon comes to your portable pal.

You take control of Max Damage, choose from 20 vehicles and drive through 40 new levels. Rack up points by mowing down mutants and collect cool power ups to destroy the opposition.

There's even an option to link up and battle against your mate.

• Look out for our Space World special next issue.

Nothing's been confirmed, but we're expecting the first shots of some of the very latest N64 and GBC games.

High on our list are Zelda Gaiden, Mario Party 2, Pokémon Silver and Gold, Super Mario Adventure and possibly an update on Nintendo's new machine.

• Another N64 game coming to your Game Boy Color is Worms Armageddon.

The awesome mixture of puzzle and strategy looks great and it should give portable players hours of fun. Once again, you take turns and try to wipe out a rival worm army.

There'll be all the usual pick ups to nab, and expect to see the return of the kamikaze worm. Cool!

Jet Force Gemini

• Awesome new look • Super space blasting • Amazing bosses

Game Info

By: Rare

Type: 3D Shoot 'em up

Release: October 1999

Jet Force Gemini is almost here, and the main characters have been given a major facelift.

Game developer, Rare, has spent the last few weeks improving the JFG characters.

Now Juno, Vela, Lupus and Floyd look much older 'n' tougher, which can only be bad news for the evil Mizar and his army of ants.

The rest of the game's unchanged, so expect loadsa bug blastin' action and brain taxing puzzles.

▲ Juno's the leader of the team. He fears no man or beast!

▼ Vela's looking sharp, but don't let her cute looks deceive you. She's one tough cookie.

▲ Don't mess with this pooch. He may look cute, but Lupus's bite is much worse than his bark...

◀ ... unless it's a really big beastie. Then the canny canine turns his tail and legs it. The big softy.

▲ It's very quiet at the moment, but that's all about to change.

Make sure you're fully loaded Vela, 'cos those mean ants could leap out from anywhere. And they don't mess when they're Gemini hunting.

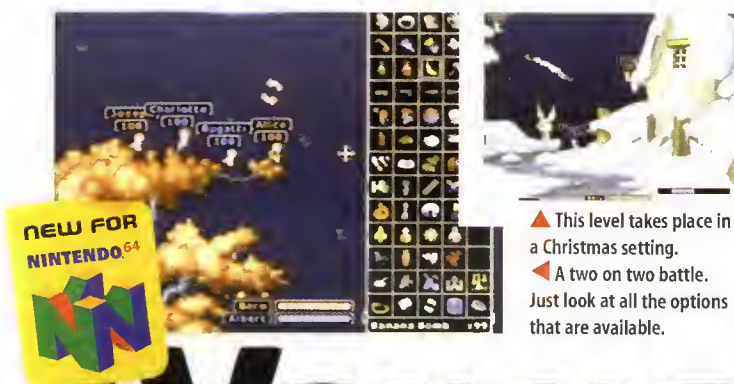

▲ Juno and Floyd strike a pose in between battles. Okay, let's go, Mizar ain't gonna wait for ever, you know.

We think...

We've said before that this could be Rare's best game ever, and the new look'll make it even better. Check out next month's issue for the first review, but get it on your shopping list now. Jet Force Gemini is gonna be huge.

▲ Looks like there's gonna be some gun slingin' in JFG.

▲ This level takes place in a Christmas setting.
 ▲ A two on two battle. Just look at all the options that are available.

Worms Armageddon

● Top strategy puzzler ● Exclusive extras

At last! One of the most popular strategy games ever is set to hit our dream machine.

Worms is a laugh a minute. You control a team of four comical lil' wrigglers and you take turns with your opponent and try to destroy them, before they wipe your earth chompin' team off the planet.

With more features, weapons and options than ever before, you'll never look at worms as slimy, wriggly disgusting creatures ever again!

Game Info

By: Infogrames
 Type: Strategy puzzle
 Release: Late 1999

▲ Take advantage of bonus pick ups. The first team to get the Mine or Jetpack can use it.
 ▲ A fight takes place in a science lab as a worm explodes in the middle of the chemistry jars. Blast yer foes to atoms.

▲ It all kicks off big time in this rocky. Don't pull any punches.

▲ A vegetable patch is the perfect location for a food fight. Make sure your dirt eatin' dudes are toolled up with the best nosh.

We think...

Worms is a fiendishly addictive strategy puzzler and, with tons of new options, this is definitely one to keep an eye on. It's been a long time coming to the dream machine, but we can't wait...

Roadsters

• Cool convertible dream machines • Improved car handling • Breathtaking locations

Game Info

By: Titus
Type: 3D Racer
Release: September

Hit top gear and race to the chequered flag as Roadsters blasts onto the track.

Choose from 30 top convertibles including the Porsche Boxter, Renault Spider and BMW Z3 and burn through some of Europe's hottest cities.

Roadsters comes from the same people who made the snail paced Lamborghini 64, but hopefully they've got things right this time.

Changing weather conditions, driver taunting and different track surfaces are just a few of the challenges gear crunchers'll have to face.

▲ This beauty's really expensive, but you know it's gonna fly. Have you got the cash to splash to race it?
◀ Take the inside line and get ahead of your rivals. Don't be afraid to cut 'em up. They'd do the same to you.

Power slide

Lamborghini's cornering was a nightmare, but Roadsters lets you power slide through the bends and burn it out the other side.

Get the perfect line into a corner and you can pull away from your rivals and leave 'em sucking on yer exhaust fumes. The handling's well realistic, too, so you'll always feel in complete control of your motor.

▲ Hopefully the cornering'll be much better in Roadsters.

▲ Get the right line, and you'll scream out of bend and straight into the lead.

► Get a move on. You're one lap in and ranked dead last. You're driving like yer gran out on a Sunday drive in her old banger!

▲ Take it slower on the ice with your gorgeous Lotus Elise. You don't wanna put a dent in this baby.

We think...

We've had some decent racers lately, and Roadsters is no exception. If the developers make the improvements needed, it could be one speedster to watch.

WWF Wrestlemania 2000

- Bone crushing, bruising bodyslams
- All the WWF superstar scrappers

Game Info

By: THQ

Type: 3D Beat 'em up

Release: Late 1999

new for
NINTENDO 64

The big boys from the WWF are back to give your N64 another pounding. Wrestling fans have never had it so good.

WWF Wrestlemania 2000 is shaping up to be the biggest fight fest yet. There'll be all the top wrestlers from Steve Austin to Kane, and each one'll be equipped with loadsa special moves.

▲ Stone Cold performs his famous 'Stunner' on Kane. You can watch every bruising move in the replay mode.

▲ Stone Cold Steve Austin takes a slow walk to the ring.

▲ Triple H gets on the wrong end of Stone Cold's Piledriver. He can feel a migraine coming on.

We think...

Expect an even better version of WCW Revenge with the WWF's biggest boys. Attitude's the best at the moment, but this is shaping up to kick its butt.

Mission Impossible

Ethan Hunt is on his way to GBC and it looks like his new adventure could be a bigger hit than the last.

Mission Impossible on the GBC is gonna be cool. As you can see it'll push your pocket pal to the limit, with a mix of platform adventure and puzzle solving.

Our spies have also told us that you'll be able to use your Game Boy's infrared signal for a cool new idea. More info soon...

► Super spy Ethan's gotta leg it behind those barrels. He'll get shot if those guards catch up with him.

Fast News

- Red 98, Hutt hutt! Go long and score a Touchdown with NFL Quarterback Club 2000.

The number one American Football game is back on the field and it's better than ever. As always, the graphics are incredibly realistic and the gameplay promises to be the best yet.

Expect all new endzone celebrations and an improved playbook selection when it's released at the end of the year.

- The GreyStation version of Star Wars Racer has been canned.

That's right, Nintendoids, the racing game of the year won't be released on any other formats, so GreyStation chumps'll have to make do with the pants Phantom Menace.

Star Wars Racer is still holding firm at the top of the N64 charts and with the success of the movie, it'll be there for a good few weeks yet.

- Not wanting A Bugs Life to win the insect battle, Antz is coming to yer Game Boy Color.

Join Z in his platforming adventure as he tries to win over the lovely Princess Bala. This cute platformer will have loadsa cool puzzle elements to test both young and old gamers.

- Wanna make phone calls on your Game Boy? Well, it could happen.

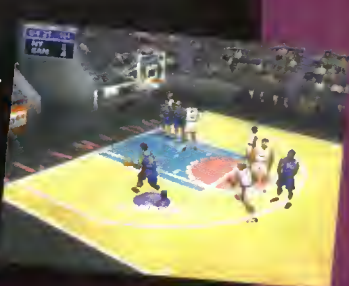

Nintendo has announced plans to turn your Game Boy into a mobile phone.

The only downside is that it's only got the go ahead in Japan but, if it's a success, expect it to come to the US and UK.

- More slam dunkin' fun is on its way as NBA Jam 2000 shoots to your N64.

Take control of all the top teams, and battle to the finals.

Once again, choose from a five on five match up, or take to the court in the cool three on three dunk fest.

Rally Masters

● Frantic rally racing action ● Top track burnin' cars ● Awesome dirt courses

Game Info

By: Infogrames
Type: 3D racing
Release: October 1999

NEW FOR
NINTENDO 64

Nintendoids have been begging for a top notch rally game and it looks like the wait is finally over.

Rally Masters is packed full of real teams, mean motors and courses from the actual world championship. You can even jump behind the wheel of a classic car too.

Brought to you by the creators of V Rally, the graphics look fantastic. From smoke pouring from your tyres, to skid marks when you spin, this'll keep you playing all the way to the finish line.

▲ Not only do you race on some amazing off road courses, you even get to roar round indoor circuits, too.

▲ Take control of yer fave rally racer and hit the track in Rally Masters. The view's amazing across the bridge.

▲ You'll be flying through the grime from England to Australia. You might wanna pop into a car wash!

▲ The attention to detail is amazing. Mud'll splash up your car and behind you when the wheels spin through the dirt.

▲ It's got some of the best racing graphics ever.

We think...

If you thought V Rally was good, you ain't seen nothin' yet. Rally Masters is shaping up to be an absolute corker.

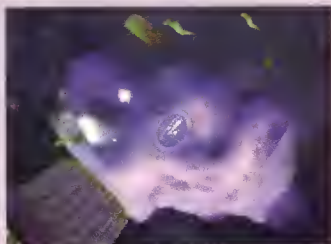

Asteroids Hyper 64

Lock 'n' load for a blast from the past, 'cos Asteroids is about to lift off on your N64.

This classic space shoot 'em up will see you battle it out over 50 action packed 3D levels against nasty enemies and asteroids that wanna blow you ta bits.

You'll have to watch your back 'cas it features new types of asteroids, including ones that explode at random.

If you've got a mate, you can even go blasting at the same time in the simultaneous multiplayer made.

▲ You'll need to use all your blasting skills to clear your screen of all the pesky space rocks in Asteroids Hyper 64.

▶ There are loadsa asteroids to destroy. Better watch your back, that huge rock's coming straight for you!

Donkey Kong 64

● Rare at its best ● New Kong characters ● Loads levels

Game Info

By: Rare
Type: 3D Adventure
Release: November 1999

The Kong family is swinging its way to the N64 in the best platforming adventure ever. Oh yes, we think so...

Join Donkey Kong and the new members of his clan as he bundles his way past evil Kremlings and the mighty King K Rool.

DK64'll have all the excitement of Banjo Kazooie and a whole lot more. Also, some of yer favourite gaming stages are back, including the brilliant mine cart levels, but don't expect 'em to be quite so easy this time round.

You'll have to get to grips with the new Kongs and use all their unique skills to get you safe 'n' sound to the end.

▲ Donkey Kong gets some words of encouragement from wise ol' Cranky Kong. All the Kong clan are set to feature in the game, along with some new Kongsters.

◀ Lanky uses his incredibly long arms to get away from danger. He can even hit the Kremlings from a distance, keeping them at arm's length.

▲ Donkey Kong competes in a swimming race.

▲ Chunky uses his beefy arms to wipe out the Kremlings.

◀ There'll be loadsa tree climbing antics in DK64. Ol' Donkey can swing from vines, too, allowing him to access higher levels and tougher puzzles.

▼ Lanky jumps on a strange symbol. Could this be a save point, or an entrance to a bonus game? Stay tuned to NOM and we'll be first with the facts.

We think...

Donkey Kong 64 is the ultimate Nintendo 64 adventure. Gorgeous graphics, superb playability and the best gaming gorillas in the business. You can't ask for more.

Mario Golf

Game Info

By: Nintendo
Type: 3D Comedy golf
Release: October

● New Golfing Heroes ● Old Faves Return ● Crazy golf challenges

The porky plumber's taking time out from rescuing Princess Peach to enjoy a round of golf with his pals.

Mario Golf takes the best of simulation and arcade, and creates the ultimate ball whacking experience.

You can play a single round or tournament, against the computer or up to three mates.

Or you can choose one of the crazy golf challenges. Mazza's friends also help out during your round.

Boo shows the strength of wind, Toad finds your ball when it's out of bounds and Lakitu reveals hazards.

▲ It's the speed challenge. Finish the hole in the fastest time possible. You won't have much time to line yer shot.

▶ Hitting the ball through the rings is easier said than done. Keep yer arm steady, and make yer swing.

▲ You hit a big swinger, but lost it in the trees. Oh no! Toad's found your ball, but it's out of bounds. You lose a stroke. Kick your caddy and get on with the game.

▲ Mario gets under the ball and sends it flying toward the pin with a beautiful stroke. Get in the hole.

◀ Baby Mario won't get an easier putt. Go on, sink it. If he misses this he'll be sick as a parrot.

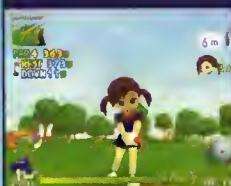

▲ Lil' Charlie's got a tricky shot to play.

Pick yer player....

You can only pick from four players at the start, and a couple will be new to ya.

Each character at the start has different strengths. Let's meet the golfing gang...

▲ Plum

Plum has lots of tricks up her sleeve. She's in with a chance of taking the title.

▲ Peach

Graceful as ever, Princess Peach doesn't hit too far, but she's very accurate

▲ Charlie

Another new player. Charlie's quite strong and he's able to fade the ball.

▲ Baby Mario

He may be the smallest player in the field, but he's a big ball whacker.

We think...

Even though it's golf, it's still everything you could want from a Mario game. Stay tuned for the review in next month's ish.

Michael Owen World League Soccer 2000

Game Info

By: THQ
Type: Football Sim
Release: October

● Ace goalmouth action ● Every Premiership Team

The Premiership's golden boy scores again as WLS 2000 gets ready for the big kick off.

Packed with goalmouth action, tough tackling and scorching goals, it could be the first football game to challenge FIFA and ISS.

▲ Time yer tackle wrong and you'll be in the book.

▲ Relive your goals from all angles with the action replay.

▲ You can even switch the camera angle and play from behind the goal. Not sure why, though.

◀ The ball's crossed and Hasselbaink heads it in for Leeds. He won't be doing that in the Premiership this season.

We think...

WLS 2000 is shaping up well. The graphics are realistic and it's 90 minutes of tough footy action.

If you're looking for a new football game, this could be the one for you. Full review next ish.

Zelda Gaiden

We've got the first ever shots of the brand new Zelda game.

And the news is, that it's gonna be released on an N64 cart. Details are patchy at the moment, but as you can see from the shots, it looks better than ever.

◀ Zelda Gaiden promises all new levels, like this strangely painted temple.

Fast News

● Magical Tetris Challenge is '64 bound in September, but it'll be a brand new version.

All the Disney characters will appear, but we've been told that there will be several changes to the Japanese and US editions. All will be revealed next month.

● Tiger Woods is gonna take golf to an all new level.

Don't expect an updated version of the PlayStation title. Tiger is an arcade styled golf game with exaggerated options.

Balls sprout wings and fly further and they can even explode on impact if you're not careful. Expect it to give Mario Golf a good run for its money.

● Another EA game on the way is Madden NFL 2000...

... hopefully, this edition will make it to our shores. Unlike the first version, Madden NFL 2000 has both NFL and NFLPA licences, so all the teams and players are included.

With QBC 2000 also making an appearance, another two way gridiron battle's on the cards.

● Don't expect Mortal Kombat Special Forces this year.

Our spies tell us that Midway is rethinking the game and it won't come out in 1999.

Apparently, it'll still be a 3D fight fest, but the developers are trying to include extra gameplay options.

With this being a prequel to the original Mortal Kombat, expect the early fighters and a few new surprises.

● Midway is putting the finishing touches to another arcade classic.

Paperboy 64 is coming, so get on yer bike and get those papers delivered.

You'll be able to perform loadsa cool stunts and there'll be all new courses to tackle and obstacles to avoid.
